

CLARE TEAM

—oo—

GREAT CROSS-COUNTRY RUN SUCCESSES

O'Callaghan's Mills scored a decisive victory in the junior championship of the A.A.U.E. at Finglas on Saturday. They held a monopoly of the leading places almost from the start, finished their first six men in the first seven places, and provided the individual winner in P. Cummins, who covered the six miles course in 36m. 50s., finishing about thirty yards or so ahead of his nearest team mate. Result:—

1, P. Cummins (O'C.); 2, M. McInerney (O'C.); 3, M. Murphy (O'C.); 4, J. Cunningham (O'C.); 5, S. Gray (Clonliffe); 6, T. Conway (O'C.); 7, J. Mahon (O'C.); 8, W. Sherringham (Donore); 9, M. Hoantree (Terenure); 10, S. Banks (Donore).

Team placing—1, O'Callaghan's Mills, 23; 2, Donore, 92; 3, Clonliffe, 120; 4, West Down, 155; 5, Terenure, 226; 6, Willowfield, 237; 7, Civil Service, 250; 8, City and Suburban, 272; 9, Crusaders, 337.

TAKING OVER LANDS

Inspectors of the Department of Agriculture are now actively engaged in taking over lands on which no effort is being made by the occupiers to comply with the tillage requirements for the year 1942. These lands will be cultivated by conacre lettings or otherwise. In addition, legal action will be taken against the defaulters concerned.

INTERNATIONAL UNIT OF CURRENCY

A Washington message says:—America is exploring the possibility of an international unit of currency—to be tried out first in the Western Hemisphere.

tendance of delegates, every club in the city and county being represented, and the proceedings were most enthusiastic.

All the outgoing officers were re-elected and only one position was contested—the position of vice-chairman, for which there were two candidates, Mr. P. O'Reilly (outgoing) and Mr. P. O'Shaughnessy.

The convention was addressed by the Chairman and by Rev. M. Hamilton, Adm., Ennis, who attended as representative of the Central Council.

Many important motions were adopted, including one tabled by St. Patrick's about the Foreign Games Rule.

A full report of the convention will appear on Wednesday night's issue.

CITY TRAGEDY

—oo—

BOY FATALLY INJURED

A 7-years-old boy named Kevin Keogh, St. Francis Abbey, Limerick, was knocked down by a lorry near his home on Saturday and died after admission to Barrington's Hospital. An inquest touching the circumstances of his death was opened at 5 o'clock this evening by Mr. J. S. MacNeice, solicitor, Deputy City Coroner.

RATE COLLECTION

An official return of the amount of county rates collected at 31st December last shows that Tipperary S.R. heads the list with a total of 57.9 per cent. collected, and Clare is at the bottom with only 37.1. The percentage for Co Limerick is 52.9.

COMPILING THE REPORT

The Commission on Vocational Organisation continued on Thursday and Friday the work of compiling their report. It is expected that the report will shortly be issued to the Minister concerned.

when the young lad he pulled in more to saw nothing until he into the ditch, where stuck. Mr. Hedigan anything.

NOT A HEAVY

To Mr. Lee—He wor anybody who said th very heavy load on th grass margin would and a half feet and not out over the sid The shaft in the rer was broken by the co the motor car struc load was pushed out the jennet's head.

John Cunningham s was living near the the accident took pla in his own house, a and saw the two cars He heard the defend "Did I not blow the and "Is it over the di me to go?"

To Mr. Lee—He h blown. There were on the load out behir

Sergeant McDermot ence of visiting the accident and makin produced.

To Mr. Lee—He dic any marks of the w jennet's car on the at the left.

The Justice said th Keating did not seem clear in their evidenc was sounded, and he anything in the bye-l contravened and sh the summons.

"HIJACKING" W

Andrew and John the Ballylanders d charged with taking small boys who were wren" on the 26th D

Supt. Keegan expl Justice that it wa practice for young la on that day collecting and when the two de some of them they to they had collected fro this case the amount there was a sum of hire.

The Justice adjourn