Myself Right with Kruschen
Months of her work consists of sewing—and she was not able to sew because of rheumatism in the hands was unbearable. Nothing helped—until she came to Kruschen.

"About a year and-a-half years ago," she says, "I had a violent attack of rheumatism all over my body. My hands were shapeless, my hands were swollen. The pain was terrible. My hands felt as if the sinews were being pulled out at the back. I was absolutely helpless.

"I tried many remedies without success. Then I started on Kruschen and after one month, I could sew again. In three months, I was well again. I have not had an attack of pain since Kruschen put me to work, and to be free from pain." (Mrs.) E.S.

POPULAR RATHKEALE MAN

Mr. Con Sheahan, Bank Place, Rathkeale, who passed away after being taken ill suddenly on Friday morning of last week, was a familiar and popular figure in the town (writes our Rathkeale correspondent). Always cheerful and ready to assist or oblige, his company was welcome wherever he went. Though past the age when he might be expected to volunteer for military service, he was an active member of the L.D.F. from its inception at Rathkeale. A guard of honour and firing party of the L.D.F., in charge of assistant group leader M. Treacy, attended at the funeral on Saturday, which was extremely large and represented all classes in the town and parish. The interment took place in the local cemetery. The officiating clergy were:—Rev. P. J. Lynch, C.C., and Rev. T. Costello, C.C.

DOROTHY LAMOUR, who co-stars with Bob Hope in "Caught in the Draft."

B. G. De Sylva, one of Broadway's most successful and unorthodox producers, has, in his first Paramount production, given us a new Dorothy Lamour. Gone is the Sarong and Coral necklace of "The Jungle Princess," "Typhoon" and "Road to Singapore," and in their place she wears the most ultra modern creations, becoming one of the screen's best dressed women. Advt.
