

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.")

Dear Sir—Through the courtesy of the promoters of the Clounanna coursing meeting I raffled a picture of "Master Magrath," the famous Irish greyhound that beat all dogs, and won the Waterloo Cup. I gave 30/- to the Mill Hill Foreign Missions and 10/- to Augustinian building fund. Would you kindly allow me, through your paper; to thank those who allowed me to run the raffie and those who took tickets.—Yours truly,

J. O'DWYER,

Caledonian Place, Limerick.

CORK POST FOR LIMERICK MAN

Cork Fishery Conservators have appointed Mr. John Scanlan, Castleconnell, as Inspector. Mr. Scanlan, who is brother of Mr. "Paddy" Scanlan, the famous Limerick "goalie," has had several years experience as employée of the Limerick Fishery Board.

FIRST AID LECTURES AT GLIN

Dr. John Barrett, M.O., Glin, began during the week another course of first aid lectures in Glin. The class, which is of both sexes, is very large, and the lectures are very interesting and much appreciated. This is the second course of lectures kindly undertaken by Dr. Barrett.

man. The interests of Foynes and the railway have been closely linked together and Mr. Scales was ever ready to advance them. His successor is Mr. Aherne, Mallow. Under the new arrangements, Mr. J. McNamara, of the clerical staff, will go to Limerick.

CONCERT AND PLAY AT GLIN

In St. Joseph's Hall, Glin, the local Dramatic Society produced a most enjoyable concert and play, the following taking part in singing, dancing and acting:—Misses Ellen Mary Cussen, E. Wallace, J. Culhane, B. Culhane, B. Sullivan, and M. Perry, Messrs. T. O'Connor, T. Lacey, P. Culhane, T. Mangan, P. O'Carroll, W. Drohan, and the pupils of St. Joseph's. Mr. P. O'Carroll, on behalf of the Society, thanked Rev. Bro. Gibson for the use of the Hall and the large audience who attended to support the entertainment, which was in aid of the funds of the County Feis, to be held in June.

DIED IN NEW YORK

We regret to announce the death in New York of Mrs. Rogers (nee Bridget Barron), who was a native of Foynes, which she left thirty-one years ago, being the eldest daughter of Mrs. Barron and the late Edward Barron. Her death was unexpected so her sorrowing mother and brothers had quite a shock when they received the news. To them the deepest sympathy is extended.
