WEEKLY CATTLE AND SHEEP MARKET.

Wednesday, February 11th:—Numbers on sale showed a considerable increase on last week, improved description. Home buyers and exporters in attendance. Beef in active demand and easily cashed at top values. Suitable bullocks and heifers looked for. Fresh young cows sold well. Vendors of beef will find this market a good medium for disposal. In store cattle section trade opened on active lines and was maintained with a free sale at full previous rates and ready exchange. Stores with age and condition found willing purchasers; young stores were a useful show to draw upon. Bullocks were in strong demand and readily cashed. Sharp inquiry for nice two year old dairy heifers, top rates well maintained. Yearling bullocks and heifers with shapes and colour in keen request at top values, especially choice flowery heifers, which were keenly bid for;
