

at first symptoms of a n almost immediate groggy, uneasy, "gone-rs. Two more 'ASPRO' hot drink, complete the will have smashed the eans known to Science.

Colds ARS— at inception" 6, writes :—"After being a martyr ke to express my thanks for the 'ASPRO' tablets—taken at the critical h the last two severe winters without a couple of 'ASPROS' directly on going to bed—the cold appears bear. By never being without d immediately. Needless to say—ave never heard of disappointment."

YIELD TO 'ASPRO'

ok I had a very bad sore throat days, when I went down with influenza. about 3 o'clock and had a slight sleep, again and I ate my tea without the l to swallow. Then I took two more cely left me and I got up and can about them enough as I was looking

'ASPRO' AS A GARGLE

Two 'ASPRO' tablets in four tablespoonfuls of water make an excellent gargle for sore throat, tonsillitis, and act as a deterrent.

6° 1'3 & 2'6
OCK & DISPLAY 'ASPRO'

He is planning another

The following sent Mass cards—Daughter, Annie; Tom, Mary and family; Patricia; Mary and Frank; Tom, Ger. and Eileen; Phil and Bridie; Mrs. K. Meehan and Maureen; Molly and Dick; Arch-Confraternity of the Cincture; John Meaney; Dan Bourke, T.D.; Beatrice and Charlie Dunbar; Tom and Chrissie; Aggie.

Flowers were received from—Daughter and grand-daughter, Mary and Frank.

MRS. DILLON, KILLURAGH.

Widespread regret was caused by the death of Mrs. Mary Dillon, which occurred at her home, Kil-luragh, Pallasgrean. The deceased lady was sister to Very Rev.
Canon Foley, P.P., Drumcollogher, and mother of Rev. Father John Dillon, Barry Docks, South Wales, Sr. M. Philomena and Sr. M. Baptist, St. Mary's Convent, Limerick, Sr. M. Michael, Port Elizabeth, South Africa, Sr. M. Augustine, Presentation Convent, Limerick.
She had endeared herself to all with whom she came in contact by her cheery, hospitable and generous ways. She was a great Catholic, and a splendid mother.
She had reached a fairly advanced age, and had lived an industrious and religious life. May the sod rest lightly on her cheery heart.

The priests in attendance were:
Very Rev. Canon P. Ryan, Pallasgrean; Very Rev. Canon Foley, P.P., Drumcollogher; Rev. Father Ephram, O.F.M., Limerick; Rev.
Father S. Kinane, Pallasgrean; Rev. Father Walsh, Cappamore; Rev. Father J. Foley, C.C., Bansa; Rev. Father Creed, Rev. Father O'Callaghan, Rev. Father Brazill, Rev. Father Lee.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs.
Meany, Miss R. Dillon, Mrs. Harty, Patrick, Timmie, Father John,
Willie (sons and daughters); Rev.
Canon Foley, Patrick, Timmie Foley (brothers); Frank, Charles Gerard, John and Hugh Foley (nephews); E. P. Harty (son-in-law); Mrs. P. Dillon (daughter-in-law); Tom Harty, J. Meany, Tim and Mary Dillon (grandchildren).

MR. J. LEE, GLENBROHANE.

We deeply regret having to record the death of Mr. John Lee, which sad event took place at his residence, Glenbrohane, on Saturday, 7th inst. He had been in a delicate state of health for a rather protracted period but recently his illness took a serious turn and he peacefully passed away comforted and consoled by the rites of Mother Church. He was brother of Rev.
W. Lee, St. Mary's Church, Washington, and of Sister Berchmans, Convent of Mercy, Newcastle West.
The happy possessor of a genial and kindly disposition, he was held is to be commended. majority of the clubs dec question. The fact of any holding control over a affecting clubs is not by any democratic. I could never stand such an arbitrary m be passed at a convention. is no grievance when the number decides the issue.

Railway Cup Final—Munster Leinster.

On last Sunday the Conn or I may write the Galweg the whole team came from county—went down before at Ballinasloe, so Munster our Eastern friends on S rick's Day at Croke Park rather an astonishing exp that the pick of one coun not combine as well as a s from different counties. W combination always lets down.

Limerick Hurlers' Advancer

Our congratulations to D McCarthy for showing hi liancy in the examinatio similar to his hurling c itches. Dr. Jim was one great backs in the winning 1940 All-Ireland. Good a caman, good at the books.
Conway (Ahane), lately pr from junior hurling, was go Leinster on last Sunday. V to see our hurlers going ah every department. Davy from a hurling family and the oldest hurling districts county, Sallymount, Castlee

DEPARTMENT OF POSTS TELEGRAPHS.

NOTICE IS HEREBY G
pursuant to the Provisions Telegraph Acts, that the M for Posts and Telegraphs, obtained the consent in that of the body having the con each public road described intends to place a Telegrap over and along each said road, and for that purpose to and maintain posts in and the same under the power ferred on him by the said graph Acts.

By Command of the Minis Posts and Telegraphs
From St. Flannan's Cat Killaloe, to a point opposite ford House, Killaloe.

THE LATE JOHN FINN LONG ISLAND.

The demise of Mr. John (junr.), at his residence Avenue, Central Islip, Long U.S.A., on January 26, is chr with deep regret. The de who was the son of John a late Catherine Finnin, of W Street, left Limerick 13 year