MRS. TERESA HARTY.

It is with deepest regret that we chronicle the death of Mrs.
 Teresa Harty, Nicholas Street,
 Limerick, wife of the late Charles Harty, pig buyer. Mrs. Harty, who died on Monday, 9th inst., was a woman of many fine traits of character and was held in the highest esteem by all classes. Her demise has caused very deep and widespread sorrow and very sincere sympathy with her highly-respected family and relatives.

Requiem High Mass was celebrated in St. Mary's Church on Thursday at 10.30, Rev. Father Costelloe being the celebrant. The funeral took place to Mount St.
 Lawrence Cemetery at 3 o'clock the same day.

The clergy present were:—Rev.
 Father Harty, P.P., St. Mary's, who officiated at the graveside; Rev.
 Father Costelloe, C.C., St. Mary's;
 Rev. Father Kennedy, C.C., do.;
 Rev. Father Hugh O'Connor, P.P., Knockaderry; Rev. Father Dillon-
 Kelly, S.J.; Rev. Father Dennehy,
 S.J.; Rev. Father Fabian, O.F.M.; Rev. Father Oliver, O.F.M.; Rev.
 Father O'Grady, C.C., St. John's.

The chief mourners were:— M.
 J. Harty (son); May, Lilly, Ita, Birdie, Tessie, Millie, Mrs. T.
 Dinneen, Mrs. P. O'Dwyer, Mrs.
 A. Smith (daughters); Mr. T. Dinneen, Mr. P. O'Dwyer, Mr. A. Smith (sons-in-law); Mrs. M. J. Harty (daughter-in-law); Mrs. Cooke,
 Mrs. Eggleston, Mrs. Devany (sisters-in-law); Jerry Cooke, Ald.
 J. Reidy, T.D.; Thomas Reidy, Joe Reidy (nephews).

SUCCESSFUL PANTOMIME

So outstanding has been the success of the "Robinson Crusoe" Pantomime by St. Michael's Choral and Dramatic Class that the promoters are prompted to continue it for three more nights, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.
 A special performance will be given to-night in the Hall, Lower Cecil Street, for members of the Defence Forces.
