

These schools turning up to see their alma maters in action. We may well look forward to the future with success. Congratulations to St. Munchins College and C.B.S. on their splendid endeavours to promote the Gaelic pastimes in the city.

CYCLING NOTES

(BY "WHEELOMETER.")

Caherdavin League.

Fixtures for this competition are as follows:—Sunday, April 12th, at 11.30 a.m.—10 miles massed start handicap. Thursday, April 16th, at 5.30 p.m.—10 miles massed start handicap. Sunday, April 26th, at 11.30 a.m., 25 miles massed start handicap. All above races will start at Caherdavin Cross.

Easter Sunday.

Owing to the difficulties of travelling very few riders from the provinces will be able to make the journey to Dublin on Sunday next for the Harp C.C. (Ireland's premier club) 25 miles massed start race in the Phoenix Park. In normal times this great event attracted from eighty to one hundred competitors. It is very interesting to know that this race is now called Track Sunday Race. On Easter Sunday the course was strewn with tacks before the event commenced, 42 riders failed to finish, and £10 is still offered to anyone furnishing proof as to the culprit. On Monday the North has its big event, the 25 miles massed start in Belfast for the Hynes Perpetual Challenge Cup.

DEATH OF MR. MARTIN CLANCY.

With very much regret we announce the death of Mr. Martin Clancy, who passed away to-day at his residence, 5 Corporation Dwellings, Athlunkard Street, Limerick. The deceased, who had been ailing for a considerable time past, was highly respected by all classes. A man of very fine principles and characteristics, he enjoyed, as he deserved, the popularity and confidence of all who were acquainted with him. To his bereaved family and relatives we extend our sincere sympathy in their sorrow. The remains will be removed to St. Mary's Church at 10 o'clock to-night and the funeral will take place at 4 p.m. on Good Friday to the family burial place at St. Mary's Cathedral.

DEATH OF MR. PATRICK O'HALLORAN

It is with regret that we record the death of Mr. Patrick O'Halloran, which took place this morning at his residence, Crescent Avenue. The deceased, who was a member of a popular Askeaton family, served his apprenticeship to the drapery trade in Limerick, and for over half a century he was actively identified with the industrial life of the city. An ardent supporter of the Gaelic League, he took a prominent part in the Sinn Fein movement, and was elected to the Limerick Corporation on that ticket. During the Black-and-Tan period he was arrested, because of his political activities, on different occasions. A man of very estimable parts, he was held in high esteem.

COUNTY LIMERICK LADY PROFESSED.

Sister M. Augustine Daly, F.C.J., second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Daly, "Liosgreine," Castletown, Co. Limerick, recently made her solemn religious profession at the Novitiate of the Faithful Companions, Broadstairs, Kent. Prior to entering the religious life, she had a brilliant course of studies at the Convent, F.C.J., Newtownbarry, and amongst other distinctions secured
