

Kerry, and Cork, a repellent expression from its meaningless use, is not, after all that said about the matter, the notion of doing anything about it by those in a have a useful trial at the value of the demand to exist.

REGAY AONACH

Parish Council, one of active and energetic in k, has decided to hold Aonach around the y, August 15th, again Encouraged by the the initial fixture last e generous measure of e recorded to the Aonach om all parts of West e Council will make s for a really good this year in aid of the y and deserving cause.

RAIDER FINED.

shopkeeper, John Brad- ummoned at Tipperary ead-soda at 1/- per lb. e, 4d) and tea at 4/8 ol price, 3/4), and also ea to two unregistered nd failing to keep a e sales up to date. He to pay £13, including xpenses.

CTIONS TO M.O. AND MATRON

clusion of Red Cross vered by Dr. P. Moylan, arecastle, he was pre- a smoker's set by the ts, 14 of whom were tificates of proficiency. O'Donnell, matron of Mental Hospital, who s on home nursing, was pient of a presentation.

CIPAL DINNERS.

urer acknowledges with nks the sum of £5 from ev. the Bishop of Lime- psbourne"; proceeds of aster Saturday, £50 11s.

Corrigan's downfall. Corrigan was only a tool in Buckley's hands.

Justice—This evidence simplifies the case for me. I sentence Buckley to two months imprisonment. Corrigan is discharged on a suspensory sentence of two months, and in the case of Sheehan the Probation Act applies.

TOOK COATS FROM DANCE HALL.

Alphonsus Doherty, Rosbrien, pleaded guilty to the larceny of two coats from city dance halls.

Mr. D. B. Fitzgerald, solr., defending, said that Doherty enjoyed an unblemished record up to the present charges.

The defendant's employer, in evidence, gave him an excellent character.

Justice—Having regard to the high character given Doherty by his employer I will discharge him on signing a bond to be of good behaviour for 12 months.

A TREASURED WATCH.

Supt. P. H. Casey, of Ennis, probably the most popular officer that ever served in the town, treasures his watch (writes our Ennis correspondent). It is a gold watch and was presented to him by the 3rd Brigade of the 3rd Northern Division, I.R.A., with which he was actively associated during troubled times.

LIGHTNING.

Very vivid lightning, followed by distant peals of thunder, was experienced at Rathkeale on Sunday night.

A cow, the property of Mr. John Deane, Colomane, Bantry, was killed by lightning recently, and his house was also damaged.

KILLED IN ACTION.

Mr. Robert O'Donnell, of Rockhill, Bruree, a rear gunner in the R.A.F., has been killed in action. The sad news was conveyed to his relatives last week. Just a little over five months ago he was married to a Charleville girl in London.

to Ennis, was Assistant Medical Officer in Waterford Mental Hospital.

TRANSFER OF SERGEANT

District Justice Flood, B.L., at the City Court to-day, said he had heard with regret of the impending departure of Sergeant Curtin. He had always found Sergeant Curtin a very capable and efficient officer, and he sincerely hoped that in his new sphere of activities the sergeant would continue to distinguish himself.

Sergeant Curtin thanked the Justice for his very kind remarks.

A GOOD HAUL

Twenty-three salmon (writes our Ennis correspondent) were caught in one day's net fishing in the River Fergus by Clarecastle fishermen. The weights ranged from 15 to 42 lbs., the latter being the largest fish caught this season. The largest fish ever caught in this river turned the scale at 54 lbs.

CLARE LADY'S APPOINTMENT SANCTIONED

Miss M. Hobbins, a native of Tulla, Co. Clare, was recently appointed by the Clare Board of Health as assistant matron to the Clare Co. Hospital. Her appointment has been sanctioned by the Minister for Local Government.

LIMERICK LADY'S WILL

Mrs. Elizabeth Hurley, of Elmira, North Circular Road, Limerick, who died on 20th December last, left personal estate in England and Eire valued at £2,308. Probate is granted to her son, Michael Hurley. She left her property specifically to her children, Michael and Mary

"FISH" WAS CAUGHT!

Daniel Fish, Donegal Street, Belfast, was caught attempting to smuggle 44 gold watches across the border at Goraghwood. He was charged at Newry and fined £675. He also forfeits the watches, valued at £254.