

ing very rapidly and it is that the contractors, George Walsh and Sons, will have completed the job before the end of the start was made this week the roofing of the second part building. If weather con-remain favourable the last could be placed in position end of June. The ornamen-ade of the church—of cut ne—is almost completed, tower at the left hand side building has yet to be

FROM THE U.S.A.

number of people in the dis-who were advised a good weeks ago by friends resid-America of the dispatch of of tea to them from the have not yet received the dity (writes our Athea cor-ent). Owing to the failure e parcels to turn up those m they were consigned are nion that they have either onfiscated, or—what is more e, still—that they have ent to the bottom of the With tea practically unpro- now, the non-delivery of gifts is certainly hard luck people concerned.

LOCAL ELECTIONS

Sean MacEntee, Minister for Government, replying to Mr. in the Dail on Wednesday, hat because of transport and difficulties it might not be eable to hold the Local Elec- during the present year. The e was being carefully ex-

WICK'S NEST IN TREE

k at Blessington, Co. Wick- has built her nest in a ore tree twenty feet above ound. The tree stands 300 from the new Poulaphouca In the nest lie 11 grey-blue Ships belonging to the Limerick Steamship Company, Ltd., the Saorstat and Continental Steamship Co., and the Wexford Steamship Co., have been bringing in wheat, tallow, resin, oils, cocoa, beans and coffee, from Lisbon. Irish Ship- ping, Ltd., the Government owned line, uses its ships on the longer voyages across the Atlantic and now make regular trips between St. John's, New Brunswick and Irish Ports.

COUNTY COUNCILLOR PASSES AWAY

Deep regret will be felt all over the county at the passing of Mr. Sean Hogan, Co.C., Sheares Street, Kilmallock. For many years the deceased had taken a prominent part in the public life of County Limerick, and as an administrator both on the County Council and Board of Health won the esteem of the people he represented and the confidence and friendship of his colleagues.

BRIGHTER BUTTER PROSPECTS

For the first time in hundreds of years this country will not export buuter this year. Irish butter producers' prospects are regarded as better than ever. It is calculated that the country can consume at least 20,000 cwts., more than was previously produced. With greater consumption of milk the outlook for the dairying industry is extremely good.

HEAVY COURT LIST

A heavy list, numbering over 120 cases, is down for disposal at the monthly sitting of Charleville Court on Tuesday and includes prosecu- tions under the Emergency Powers Acts for failing to till, summonses under the Dairy Produce Act, Bread Prices Act, Road Traffic Act, assaults, malicious damage, and the usual ordinary complaints.

Mr. M. J. Walshe, State Solicitor mentioned at Ennis Court on Friday that Mrs. Mollie McInerney, of Killavoy, O'Callaghan's Mills, who had been ordered to assign American assets to the Minister of Finance had not yet done so and he applied for an adjournment for a month to enable her complete the transaction as the Department of Finance had not yet received an information that the account had been transferred. The adjournment was granted.

PRIEST BEREAVED.

With sincere regret we announce the death of Mr. O'Shea, Ballin Killaloe, brother of the Rev. F. O'Shea, C.C., Ballina, which sad event took place last week-end at Nenagh Hospital. Since his advent to Ballina with his reverend brother some years ago, he was loved and respected by all. He was an exemplary man in every respect and the deepest sympathy is extended to the Rev. Father O'Shea on the death of his loving brother.

SHANNON PLAYERS

During last week (writes our Foynes correspondent) the Shannon Players drew large crowds to the Hall, Foynes. A word of congratulation is due to the management of this enterprising company for the high standard of their productions and on the selection of their plays.

CYCLING.—CAHERDAVIN LEAGUE

The 10 miles massed start handicap was held over the Ennis Road course yesterday, and resulted as follows:—1, P. A. Barry (Caherdavon); 2, W. Kennedy (Limerick City W.); 3, G. Shanahan (do). Winner's time, 28 mins. 2 secs.

HORSES DEAR

Cart and farm horses were very dear at Kilkenny fair on Monday. They made generally from £50 to £65 each and in one case £80 was paid.