

THE RELIGIOUS LIFE.

Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty, Bishop of Killaloe, presided at ceremonies at Ennis Convent in connection with the reception of three Clares—Miss Nancy Boland (Sister Mary Fabian), Broadford; Miss Mary Griffin (Sister Mary Baptist), Dysert; and Miss Eileen O'Reilly (Sister Mary of the Sacred Heart), Droghda. Amongst the clergy present was Very Rev. Canon Quin, Rector, St. Flannan's College.

TURF WORKERS WANTED

Workers are wanted for turf cutting and bog development work in Kildare and adjoining counties. A long period of employment is anticipated, free transport will be provided to the camps, and lodging and accommodation will be arranged. Overtime rates will be paid. Workers will also be insured. Full particulars, together with rates of pay, appear in a Government notice in this issue.

FIRE OUTBREAK IN ENNIS

An outbreak of fire occurred in the two-storey house of Mr. P. Loughlin, Market Street, Ennis, and destroyed the dwelling. The local Fire Brigade, assisted by Civic Guards and members of the Defence Forces, prevented the flames from spreading.

SWINE FEVER

Swine fever has broken out in Belfast and surrounding districts. About 200 affected animals have been slaughtered and a number of others were also killed as a precautionary measure.

DID WELL

Two men fishing from a small boat landed £150 worth of fish in a week off Kilmore Quay, Wexford.

thanks, on behalf of the above, to the Limerick Co. Council for unanimously recommending increase in wages for bog workers. Is mise le meas,

SEAN HAYES, Runaidhe,
Doon. 20-4-1942.

DEATH OF AUCTIONEER.

Mr. Owen H. Ryan, whose death has occurred at his residence, Arraghslea, was a member of the well-known firm of auctioneers in Tipperary. A zealous member of the Confraternity of the Holy Family in Tipperary, he was father of the Rev. John P. Ryan, C.C., Inch, and of Sister M. Stainslaus, Presentation Convent, Cashel.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

On Tuesday last an old resident of Mitchelstown, Daniel Lyons, who resided at Robert Street in that town, was found dead in bed. Deceased, who had been blind for a few years back, enjoyed the best of health up to lately, being at the races the previous day. An inquest was not deemed necessary.

FEWER PIGS

Only 7,095 pigs were received for curing at bacon factories in Eire during the week ended April 18th, compared with 16,924 in the corresponding week last year. In the 16 weeks ended April 18th, 163,694 pigs were received, against 304,408 in the same period last year.

FOUND DEAD

James Cullinan (71), Farnane, Cappagh, whose body was found in a field on his farm last Sunday, had been gored by a bull, the jury found at the inquest yesterday.

Dr. Sarah O'Malley will be absent from 4 Pery Square, Limerick, until May 6th. (f24c)

The annual grand dance under the auspices of the above arranged for Sunday night next at Adare Hall. With the Bohemian Dance Band, a Limerick contribution, engaged to supply the music and Miss Peggy O'Halloran for vocal accompaniment, every point is to a night of enjoyment. The Club has left nothing up to make the function a success. Further particulars from this issue.

NO EXEMPTION ORDER

Three local publicans—Madden, Michael Griffin and O'Sullivan—were charged at Leville Court with having premises open early on a morning without having executed orders. Sergeant Duggan mentioned that there was local jealousy. District Justice Kenny said he would adjourn the cases generally on the understanding that the defendants were to keep closed at 10 o'clock.

KILFINANE CARNIVAL

The promoters of the Kilfinane Carnival, which will open on Sunday next, have shown a richness of ideas in drawing up their scheme of attractions. They are hard at work to make the occasion all that it should be. There is a great treat in store for a patronise this great feast of frolic and amusement. The proceeds will be in aid of the Council.

HOUSE BROKEN INTO AT ASKEATON

The house of Mr. Daniel Flanagan, Ballyclough, Askeaton, Co. Limerick, was broken into and a sum of money taken. It is stated that the incident occurred in the day when there was nobody in the house had been locked up. The Garda Síochána are investigating the