

Mrs. Stana McMordie, Lady Mayoress of Belfast for five successive years and High Sheriff in 1923 has died at Kingscliffe, Northampton. The first woman in Ireland to be elected a High Sheriff, Mrs. McMordie, who was an English woman, was M.P. for South Belfast from 1921 to 1925.

'BUS QUEUING COMPULSORY?

Queuing for 'buses and trams may be made compulsory in Dublin shortly. The authorities have already considered the matter and a decision will probably be made after the new 'bus schedules have been in operation for about a week.

AN IRISH FILM

Mr. Leslie Howard, the film star, who spent a week in Killarney, said that he would like to make a film there, a comedy of Irish life that would have all the local flavour he found so fascinating.

MOSQUITOS UP NORTH.

Five men have been appointed by Dr. C. S. Thompson, Medical Superintendent Officer of Health, Belfast, to deal with the mosquito pest in that area.

At the Father Mathew Féis in Cork, Letitia Casey (O'Rourke School, Limerick) won first prize in the slip jig. The O'Rourke School won 2nd prize in the three-hand reel. Philomena Evans won first prize in the junior reel, while Mary Evans secured 2nd prize in the senior reel. Jack Moloney, like the Evans girls, also of the O'Rourke School, won first prize in the double jig.

TEACHING APPOINTMENTS

Mrs. M. O'Riordan, N.T., Ballysteen Girls School, has been appointed as assistant at Askeaton Girls School, thus filling the vacancy occasioned by the recent death of Mrs. E. Sheehy, N.T. Mrs. Kathleen Moloney, N.T., Knockea, has been transferred to fill the vacancy at Ballysteen.

DEATH.

Brennan (Meelick, Co. Clare)—April 27th, 1942, at his residence. Pass, Meelick, Arthur Brennan. R.I.P. Remains will be removed this (Monday) evening at 8 o'clock (S.T.) to St. Munchin's Church. Mass at 10 o'clock (S.T.) to-morrow (Tuesday) morning. Funeral at 3 o'clock (S.T.) to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.