

which died away in a job. The man recovered sufficiently to say: "The job is yours," but the prospect of rigorous training and development deterred me from accepting.

Final details of the service being worked out, Mr. Jenkins said. These will include the element of regular stopping, one of which will be Patin a few weeks time Limerick will see one of the strange phenomena of 1942 — liveried men driving a four-in-hand in juxtaposition to (or perhaps) the 'bus.

ILLEGAL NET

HEAVY PROSECUTION

at Limerick City Court, District Justice J. M. Flood,

Tobin, Andrew Gardens, Strand, was summoned by Limerick Fishery Board for an illegal fishing net on 18th

A. Blood-Smyth, solr., prosecutor and Mr. E. A. Alban, Ryan, defended.

Director M. Breen gave evidence of hearing a boat on the water at Corkanree at 2.30 a.m. and to get in touch with this boat at 5 a.m. he saw a boat on shore at Clancy Strand. There was a net in a bag and the defendant admitted possession.

Justice said that as the net belonged to Tobin no prosecution could lie against him.

Justice said that the section perceive anyone in possession of an illegal net was guilty of an offence. He would fine Tobin, direct the confiscation of ages were assessed at £1,500 yesterday, and the President of the High Court gave judgment accordingly, in favour of O'Rourke, aged 16½ years.

the Health Board will also be re-elected by co-option.

It is thought that the remaining two vacancies—one caused by death and the other by reason of the fact that a disqualified member will not seek re-election—will be contested.

The Co. Secretary (Mr. L. O'Donnell) will, in accordance with the regulations, submit a list of the disqualified members to the meeting of the Co. Council to be held tomorrow (Saturday), when preliminary arrangements will be made to fill the vacancies by co-option.

AIR RAID TRAGEDY

LIMERICK DOCTOR KILLED

News reached Limerick to-day that Dr. Thomas Sheahan, son of the late Mr. Martin Sheahan, Roxboro', Limerick, had been killed in an air raid on an English town. No confirmation for this report has come from any source.

THE BISHOP

On next Sunday (writes our Foynes correspondent) his Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. Keane, Bishop of Limerick, will visit the parish of Shanagolden for the Confirmation ceremony. Children from the Foynes, Borrhigone, Nutgrove and Shanagolden Schools will be presented for Confirmation. The Visitation Mass will be celebrated at Shanagolden Parish Church at 11.30 a.m. (old time).

BOG STRIKE

The Clare County Council turf employees on O'Farrell's bog, Ballycoggeran, Killaloe, are on strike the effect that he purchased a pound of icing sugar in the shop of Mrs. South. As he was not a registered customer he should have been supplied with the sugar. Mr. J. J. Sexton, solr., defending, said that the defendant was not aware that icing sugar was rationed.

THE REGULATIONS

Justice—Those regulations must be tightened up. The rationing of commodities has been found to be absolutely necessary. I will impose a fine of £1, and if there are any more of these cases in the future heavier fines will be inflicted.

Mr. Sexton asked his worship to reduce the fine as the offence was committed during Easter.

Justice—No, I will not.

Mr. Power—You are getting very lightly, as the maximum fine is £100.

TRADE UNION ACT

IN FORCE TO-DAY

The new Trade Union Act came into force to-day—May Day. Amongst other things, the Act provides that no bodies may negotiate with employers on matters of wages or conditions of employment unless they are registered and have made a deposit with the High Court. The size of the deposit varies from £1,000 to £10,000, according to the number of members in the union. The Act has been designed mainly with the object of eliminating trade union rivalry and the merging of the smaller unions into the large organisations. The licensing of employing as well as employee organisations is catered for, and a Trade Union Tribunal is set up to determine which unions are to be recognised as representing employers or employees in any particular class of business or employment.
