

Chairman said that at the meeting of the East Limerick Mr. F. Lyddy, secretary, City raised the question of going to the Central Council on the decision of the Munster in granting the transfer of Troy from Claughaun to Ireland. The matter was added to the present meeting to decide whether the appeal should stand or not, as it already had arrangements. The Secretary then advised that the appeal could be taken with the Central Council covering note explaining the matter, and this was done. The matter is now before the meeting, and the Chairman, is to decide whether the appeal should stand or

G. Cremins, Young Ireland, at Mr. Troy had played with the Ireland club recently, and more or less settled the matter. The Chairman said he would take a position as to whether the appeal would stand or not. Mr. Lyddy proposed that the appeal be allowed stand, but this proposition was not seconded. The proposition of Mr. M. O'Leary (Mungret), seconded by Mr. W. Murphy (Sarsfield), it was decided to withdraw the appeal.

"Memoriana," Acknowledgment Cards
classes of small card printing, apply
"Limerick Leader," Ltd. Quick
Large range of latest designs.
prices.

an endorsement of her licence for an offence against the Licensing Acts at 1 a.m. on 7th December.

Mr. G. Kenny, B.L. (instructed by Mr. F. J. O'Flynn, solicitor), for the appellant, said there was no dispute as to the facts. The defendant had admitted allowing the consumption of drink during prohibited hours, but the order made was a conviction for "keeping open during prohibited hours." They denied "keeping open," and the position was that they had admitted an offence for which they were not convicted.

The State Solicitor said he would have to agree with Mr. Kenny. The order should have been for consumption on the premises during prohibited hours.

The order of the District Justice was accordingly reversed.

DEATH OF MR. DUDLEY FLETCHER

The death took place yesterday at Killaloe of Mr. F. Dudley Fletcher, C.E. For forty years he was inspector of the Shannon Navigation under the Commissioners of the Board of Works. Previous to that he was employed by the Grand Canal Company as engineer. Since his retirement from the Board of Works some years ago he lived in Killaloe.

inevitably contain the seeds of another world-war.

* *

His Holiness the Pope is watching every opportunity for advancing the cause of peace. Even the belligerent themselves may in time be glad that his efforts in this respect are unceasing and that his good offices are available.

* *

*

The Sovereign Pontiff not only represents the greatest power in the world but is today the only neutral and impartial force to which warring nations can look to the central pivot around which any effort can revolve with hope of bringing true peace and security to a mad and distracted world.