

inspected by his Lordship, who congratulated them on their smart appearance.

In the course of his address to the congregation, the Bishop exhorted them to continue to pray for peace so that the terrible scourge of war may be kept far from us. His Lordship expressed his pleasure at the splendid report received from Father Kelly, P.P., regarding the state of the parish. He wished to thank the clergy and teachers for the knowledge displayed by the children; also the choir, for the beautiful rendering of sacred music.

DROMCOLLOGHER WHIST DRIVE

The weekly whist drives at Dromcollogher in aid of Red Cross Funds still continue to draw large crowds and prove most enjoyable functions. The winners last week were:—Tuesday night—Ladies' first prize, Miss N. Walsh, N.T.; second prize, Miss Quinn. Gent's first prize, Mr. D. O'Callaghan, N.T.; second prize, Mr. M. Bennett. Sunday night—Ladies' first prize, Mr. P. O'Sullivan; second prize, Mr. Walsh (both playing as ladies). Gent's first prize, Mr. T. Madigan; second prize, Mr. D. D. O'Halloran.

FIRST COMMUNION.

During the week-end (writes our Dromcollogher correspondent) upwards of 25 children from the local primary schools had the happiness of making their first Holy Communion. As they approached the altar rails with lighted candles they presented a most edifying spectacle and the day should rank in their memories as one of the happiest of their lives.

an action for 125 against Diana Schumaker, of Ballyriggeran, for that the plaintiff was employed from March 1 to December 24 for £13 with board and was unlawfully dismissed on the 1st May.

Having heard the evidence, his Worship gave a decree for £5 with 5/- expenses.

BOTH PASSED THE NINETY MARK

The deaths have occurred within three days of each other of Mr. Thomas Whelan (92), and Miss Nora Whelan (90), brother and sister, of Askeaton, Co. Limerick. They were members of a well-known West Limerick farming family, and both had enjoyed good health up to a short time before their deaths. There was a large and representative attendance at the funerals.

PIG PRICES

An announcement in the "Irish Oifigiul" announces increases in the price of non-factory purchased second class pigs from 74/- to 75/6 per cwt., and of factory purchased pigs of the same class from 98/- to 100/-.
