U.S. RED CROSS MISSION

The American Red Cross representatives, Dr. D. P. O'Brien and G. D. Allen, of the Rockefeller Foundation, New York, who were accompanied by Mr. Justice Conroy, President of the Irish Red Cross Society, arrived in Limerick to-day.

This evening the distinguished visitors, together with a number of special guests, are being entertained at tea at Cruise's Hotel by Mr. P. F. Minlan, B.C., chairman, Limerick Branch of the Red Cross.

The guests included the Mayor (Mr. D. J. O'Malley, solr.), Mr. J. J. London, solr., Deputy City Manager; Mr. Lyddy, Co. Divisional Director; Mr. M. O'Riordan, Deputy do.; Dr. Harpur, St. John Ambulance Brigade; Mr. F. G. O'Reilly, hon. sec., Limerick Branch; Mr. J. Hanniffin, Treasurer, do.; Miss Moroney, Assistant sec., etc.

CORK MAYORALTY

The three Independent members of the Cork Corporation have decided to put forward one of the group, Alderman Allen, for election as Lord Mayor on June 24th.

Megaw, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Flock, Mr. C. A. Jenkins, (Secretary Lord Adare), Mrs. Merrifield, Capt. M. Fennel, Mr. O'Shaughnessy, Miss J. O'Shaughnessy, Mrs. Keogh, Miss Keogh, Mrs. Roger O'Sullivan, Mr. B. Tansie, Mr. McAuley, Mrs. Cotter, Miss O'Rourke, Capt. Jones, Capt. Armstrong and General McClure and a party of journalists.

The atmosphere of the mail coach days was preserved by the carriage of a package from Mrs. de Vere, Curraghchase, to a resident in Limerick.

CONDITIONS CONTRASTED

"Britain is eating better, drinking better, smoking better, living better, and—what's more—getting more fun out of life than Germany," said Mr. Joseph W. Grigg, junior, an American journalist, just back from the Reich, in a B.B.C. broadcast. "It takes a year and a half to get a suit of clothes made—if you're lucky."

DEATH.

O'Mahony (Limerick)—At her residence, 29 Bishop Street, Mrs. Bridget O'Mahony, mother of Rev. Father Cyril, O.F.M. Deeply regretted. Funeral took place to-day (Monday) from S. Mary's Church to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.
