THOMOND FEIS

Outstanding Success

OFFICIAL RESULTS

This year's Thomond Feis, which concluded on Sunday last, 7th June, was an unqualified success from every viewpoint. Entries, in spite of transport and other difficulties, were up to and in most sections exceeded former years, while the adjudicators were unanimous in asserting that the high standard of previous years was well maintained and in several sections greatly improved.

From the organisation side the Feis was also a huge success. From the first competition on Tuesday, 2nd June, to the ceilidhe on Sunday, 7th, all arrangements ran smoothly. All the different sections were completed without any fuss, rush or hitch, and adjudicators, teachers and competitors joined in praising the efficiency of the organisers. A special word of praise is due to Mr. D. McCarthy, secretary, and Mr. M. Tuohy, B.A., president.

The Feis Aeridheacht on Sunday, June 7th (fully reported in Monday's issue) and the Feis Ceilidhe on Sunday night brought to a close a most successful Feis.
