

...ation for passenger travel, and this could not be increased to meet holiday requirements the public had been urged to refrain from all unnecessary travel. It was hoped that further restrictions would not be necessary, but he could not give any assurance that they could be avoided.

---

MILITARY HONOURS

---

Full military honours were accorded at the funeral of Mr. Jack Ryan, youngest son of Dr. and Mrs. F. Ryan, Blarney, who was accidentally shot during L.D.F. manoeuvres near Limerick on Sunday. The funeral took place yesterday from Blarney to St. Finarr's Cemetery, Cork. At the graveside a firing party and Army bugler rendered the final honours.

---

GETTING 2/- MORE.

---

The road workers under Kildare County Council are having their wages increased from 30/- to 32/- per week. Sanction to the increase has been received from the L.G.D.

and although the locals will by no means there was little to choose between both, except that the Feale-siders were more expert in the close-in shots.

---

LOCAL ELECTIONS SOON

---

An Taoiseach announced in the Dail yesterday that the Local Government Elections would be held within the next few months. The exact date, he said, would be announced as soon as possible. On the question of general elections, Mr. de Valera said they must be held within 12 months unless all the parties in the Dail agreed to defer them.

---

DEATH.

---

Lawlor—On July 1st, 1942, at St. John's Hospital, Martin Lawlor, Garryowen, R.I.P. Deeply regretted. Remains will be removed on this (Wednesday) evening at 8 o'clock to St. John's Cathedral. Requiem Mass at 10 p.m. on to-morrow (Thursday). Funeral same day at 3 p.m. to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.