SIXTEEN OUNCES INSTEAD OF FIVE.

Mr. McKeon said that defendant's records showed that she had given extra tea to her husband. She supplied 16 ozs. over a period instead of 5 ozs.

The defendant said that she got some extra tea from the firm that she dealt with and kept it in a chest. That was the tea in respect of which she was summoned.

Mr. Power said that the shortage of tea in Newcastle West was and had been serious, and this should not be so.

The Justice said he would impose a fine of £2 on each of the summonses, making a total fine of £6 on defendant.

Edward Flynn, Tullig, Templeglantine, who was summoned for purchasing the tea, and not being a registered customer, was fined 10/-.

The Harbour Engineer said that he had no objection to the application being granted. The City Manager had no objection either. The Corporation owned part of the quay.

Mr. Loughrey—This man is to be admired for his enterprise and I propose that his application be granted.

Ald. Bourke seconded this proposition and it was passed unanimously.

FOYNES TO HAVE CARNIVAL WEEK

At a largely attended public meeting held at Foynes (writes our correspondent there) it was unanimously decided to hold a carnival week in August. The meeting was sponsored by the Foynes Improvement Association, and the secretary, Mr. P. Culhane, was instructed to get in touch with the manager of Perks' Amusements and Mr. Jack Hayes, the proprietor of Hayes' Band, Rathkeale. The chairman, Rev. M. J. Quinlan, C.C., opening the proceedings, said the motive behind the project was to extend the local hall, and equip it with club rooms. The building as it stood at present was only suitable for concerts and dances. If the hall could be properly equipped it would provide a much needed want in supplying the youth of the town with accommodation.
