

without a single untoward incident occurring to mar the prevailing harmony and good feeling. For Abbeyfeale, Colbert, McCarthy, Murphy, Collins and Fitzgibbon were conspicuous players, while on the Ballyhahill side, the two O'Shaughnessys, Costelloe, Fitzgerald and Sheahan deserve special mention.

SALE OF A HORSE.

—oo—

ACTION FOR BREACH OF WARRANTY

At Rathkeale Court on Monday, before Mr. C. S. Kenny, B.L., D.J., Patrick O'Reilly, Ballylyn, Croagh, sued Daniel Hourigan, junr., Ballin-garry, for £4 7s. 6d. damages for alleged breach of warranty in the sale of a horse.

Mr. M. F. Noonan (Messrs. P. T. Liston and Co., solrs.) appeared for plaintiff, and Mr. M. E. Cussen, solr., was for the defendant.

Plaintiff gave evidence to the effect that on the 5th October last he bought a horse from defendant for £4 10s. Defendant engaged the horse to plough, but when tried the animal would not work at the plough. Defendant refused to take back the horse, which witness subsequently sold for 50/- at Rathkeale fair.

Mr. Cussen—Would it surprise you to know that this horse is 19 years and no man in his sane senses would engage a horse of that age?—He would be young enough if he was able to do the work.

Defendant denied that there was any question of a warranty and said that plaintiff bought the horse as he stood. Before the sale the horse had given satisfaction to witness in ploughing and doing carting work.

James Daly, who said he was present at the sale; stated that no engagement was given.

The Justice said he believed that an engagement of some kind was given and awarded a decree for £2 with 5/- expenses.

NICE TRIBUTE

—oo—

TO RETIRED TEACHER

On Friday evening last (writes our Dromcollogher correspondent) a pleasant function took place at Feenagh Girls N.S. It was to suitably mark the occasion of the retirement of Mrs. A. O'Grady on pension.

The schoolroom was crowded to round of the junior hurling championship. The game opened at a lively pace and play was well contested with Bruff doing most of the attacking. It was a sparkling contest throughout, fast and clean, the teams running neck-and-neck in the closing stages, the issue being in doubt to the final whistle. The game ended in a draw, the final scores being—Bruff, 2 goals 7 points; Kilfinane, 3 goals 4 points. Mr. D. O'Sullivan, Kilmallock, was an impartial referee.

DEATH OF A KILLALOE GAEL.

Killaloe mourns the death of Stephen Lynch, a young man who gave of his best to the language and games of his country (writes our Killaloe correspondent). The deceased was a model of Irish boyhood. He was an active member of the Killaloe Gaelic League, a fluent Irish speaker and a hurling enthusiast. At an early age, he joined the L.D.F. and until illness set in never missed an opportunity of acquiring that military knowledge befitting a soldier. The remains were brought from Barrington's Hospital, Limerick, to the parish church, Killaloe, and were followed by a vast concourse of people including his comrades of the L.D.F. Requiem Mass was offered up, after which interment took place at the family burial ground, St. Flannan's. He was accorded a military funeral; three volleys were fired over the grave and the last post sounded. To his sorrowing parents, sisters, brothers and friends deepest sympathy is extended in their bereavement.

A MEAN FRAUD

A Kiltimagh butcher named Jordan had a string tied to the goods pan side of the scales on which he weighed meat and to this string was tied a small cloth bag which would hold a 2 oz. weight. Fining him £5 15s. at Claremorris Court, District Justice Guy said it was one of the worst cases of fraud he ever had before him.

TOOK EVERY REMEDY FOR STOMACH PAINS

But Got No Relief

This man tried everything under the sun for his indigestion. Nothing relieved him, until one day a real friend put him on the right track.

ficate of the analyst expenses in the case w
Mr. M. F. Noonan, s
P. T. Liston and C ing, said that the de very slight and it wou
to impose the full exp defendant.

The Justice fined d and, remarking that border-line case, said th
only allow 4/- expense

LARCENY CHARGE

Mrs. M. Keenahan, Rathkeale, was charged with having a purse containing £10. Supt. Cooney prosecuted. Miss M. Kearns said that when she was shopping she left her bicycle on the street. Her purse was on the bicycle and was turned. The purse was subsequently found by the witness and contained the £10.

Supt. Cooney said that the defendant was locally known as "the bicycle thief."

Mr. E. Cussen, solicitor for the defendant, said that he denied the charge.

The Justice dismissed the charge under the Probation Act.

LITTLE BOY AND NECKLACE

A twelve-years old boy was charged with the larceny of a necklace value £250 and a necklet value £10, the property of Miss Christina O'Rourke, matrix House.

He was also charged with having stolen two bottles of port wine and two bottles of sherry, which were the property of P. J. Trainor, Ballinacorney.

The Justice remarked that the boy could not deal with the case as it was outside his jurisdiction.

Sergt. Keegan said that in the examination of a case at the Station he found that the boy had been disturbed.

He subsequently took the boy to the barracks where he admitted the offence. Defendant brother Duffy to the place where the bottles concealed.

Supt. Cooney said that in another case defendant at the barracks but the evidence that he had a smaller necklace to a boy.

Guard Duffy said that he searched the defendant's house and the boy in the presence of his mother.

On the way to the barracks defendant's mother witness back and told her that the boy had confessed to her. She took the necklaces and showed them where he had them concealed. Supt. Cooney said