

ish Coun-apers and
h interest

ANK

been reg out of Embank-
r. D. J.
the city
is his in-
partment
sanction

URLER

a meadow
Mr. John
urler, and
team, re-
es. It is pped off a
is legs in machine
him. Dr. s quickly
dent, and eries had removed
is stated

OG HOLE

(23), of
agh, fell orking in ning and
was recov-
removed ital pend-

WHALE!

nd in the y washed
Co. Mayo. r 80 tons,
nd had a
A large extracted

the point of a work but could hardly have been caused by the handle The inquest was adjourned until to-morrow (Saturday).

FINAL WARNING.

Commissioner David O'Keeffe, sitting to administer the affairs of Clare Board of Health, issued a final warning to cottage tenants in arrears, who had been served with notices to quit and who had not discharged the arrears due by them. Proceedings will be instituted against all who have not paid in full by the 31st inst., after which date offers of easy payment will not be considered.

NO MOTORS FOR ELECTIONS

In connection with the forthcoming local elections, the Minister for Supplies has notified owners of hackney cars and other motor vehicles that these vehicles must not be used on polling day for the conveyance of voters or similar purposes. The use of any vehicle contrary to this notice may involve withdrawal of the permit granted for such vehicle.

NEW PARISH COUNCIL.

A new Parish Council has been formed at Tullylease with the following officers and committee:—Mr. Moses Roche, Chairman; Mr. Michael McMahon, Treasurer; Mr. Thomas Roche, Secretary. Committee — Messrs. Michael Whelan, Michael Stokes, Eugene O'Sullivan, Michael Barry, James Lenihan, Simon Stokes.

QUESTION TIME.

In connection with Dromcollogher Carnival a very interesting question time took place at Feenagh and Broadford. At Feenagh the winners were:—1st, Mr. D. O'Connor, N.T.; 2nd, Mr. D. Leahy; while at Broadford Mr. P. Long, N.T., was first and Mr. J. Grogan, N.T., was second. The winners qualify for the final at Dromcollogher during the carnival week.

round league fixtures were made as follows:—

Tuesday, 28th July, at the Gaelic Grounds, at 8 p.m.—Technical Institute v. Ahane. Referee, Mr. W. Naughton.

Thursday, 30th July, at Gaelic Grounds, at 8 p.m.—Clann na hEireann v. St. Munchin's. Referee, Mr. M. Hynes.

Tuesday, 4th August, at Ballyneety, at 8 p.m.—Friarstown v. Fedamore. Referee, Mr. E. Brown.

Thursday, 6th August, at Lisnagry, at 7 p.m.—Ahane v. Castleconnell Shamrocks. Referee, Mr. W. Naughton.

Thursday, 7th August, at Gaelic Grounds, at 8 p.m.—Technical Institute v. St. Brigids. Referee, Mr. M. Mulcahy.

PRIESTS BEREAVED.

With very sincere regret we chronicle the demise of Mrs. Annie Kennedy, wife of Mr. Richard Kennedy, Blossomhill, Kilcornan, Co. Limerick. Deceased, who was a lady of many charming parts, was mother of Rev. R. Kennedy, Italian Church, London, and Rev. T. Kennedy, Dalgan Park, Navan. The interment took place after Requiem Mass in Stonehall Parish Church. The celebrant was Rev. T. Kennedy; sub-deacon, Rev. R. Kennedy; master of ceremonies, Rev. Father Ryan, Thurles. There were many priests in the choir. The funeral cortege to Castletown was of huge proportions, mourners attending from a very large area.

BRILLIANT LIMERICK STUDENT

The results of the Honan and University Entrance Scholarships U.C.C., have been announced. A Limerick boy, Maurice N. Kennedy, pupil of Christian Schools, Sexton Street, obtained first place in the Honan and second place in the Entrance Scholarship Examinations. The Honan Scholarship is a much coveted and valuable prize for which the most brilliant students of Munster compete.