ACTION OF CO. COUNCIL.

To-day, at the meeting of the Limerick Co. Council, the chairman (Mr. J. W. Canty) referred to the execution of young Williams in Belfast this morning, and asked the council and general public to observe two minutes silence as a tribute of respect to his memory. He considered it a kind of victory when the whole six were not executed, but when one of them had been executed now was the time to pray for his indestructible soul.

The members of the Council and general public then stood and observed the two minutes silence.

AT MUNGRET.

The employees of Cement, Ltd., numbering upwards of 150, ceased work from 11 to 12 as a protest against the Belfast execution and to mark the solemnity of the occasion proceeded to a field adjacent to the factory, where the Rosary was recited by Rev. Father Kelly, S.J.

throat of those who heard him, and an echoing answer in the sailors' thoughts as they listened to the line: "And some day I'll come back again to Ireland." It was a boy's tribute to courageous men.
