

mixed choir of over 60 voices. Proposed of the cream of the city's choir. This is a work of outstanding merit, and Mr. F. Brislane, who conducts the choir, is to be congratulated on his enterprise in putting such an important and beautiful work before the public. The choir will also render choruses of great popular interest from some of the well-known operas, and musicians are assured of a very enjoyable night. It is hoped that the public will give the venture their support.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Calomel—and you'll jump out of bed in the morning full of vim and vigour. The liver should pour out two pints of liquid into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just stays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk, and world looks punk. Laxatives help a little, but a mere bowel

Numerous telegrams and letters of sympathy were received, while the coffin was literally covered with a sheaf of Mass cards.

LATE MISS M. A. QUILLINAN, LAURENCETOWN.

We deeply regret having to record the death of Miss Mary Ann Quillinan, Laurencetown, Kilfinane, which sad event took place at the Mercy Hospital, Cork, following an operation, on Saturday, 3rd inst. Deceased was a lady in the best sense of the term and was beloved by all who had the privilege of her acquaintance for her amiability, refined ideas, truly charitable disposition and consideration for the feelings and views of others. Her remains, which were brought by motor hearse to Kilfinane Church on Monday, were interred at Ballingarry Cemetery in the presence of a large assemblage of mourners and sympathisers. Rev. Fr. Carr, P.P., and Rev. Father Power officiated at the graveside. R.I.P.

LATE MR. A. CLANCY, BALLY-ORGAN.

It is with feelings of deepest regret we chronicle the death of Mr. Allen Clancy, which sad event occurred at his residence, Ballyorgan, on Wednesday, 7th inst. He had been in a delicate state of health for some time and, although his death was not unexpected, it occasioned very sincere regret, as he was a young man who endeared himself to all who had the pleasure of meeting him. His remains were removed to Kilfinane Church on Thursday evening and on Friday were interred in the adjoining cemetery. Rev. W. Manning officiated at the graveside.

BANKERS' DANCE

Owing to the ever-increasing popularity of this function the committee has found it necessary to restrict the numbers attending. All the tickets printed have now been sold, and as a result many people have been disappointed. It will be generally agreed, however, that the committee is acting very wisely, as overcrowding can only result in discomfort and dissatisfaction. The committee ask us to make it clear to all concerned that under no circumstances will anyone be admitted to the hall without a ticket, and money will not be accepted at the door. No exception will be made to this rule.

KILMALLOCK RED CROSS DANCE

The Kilmallock Red Cross dance will be held in the People's Hall, Kilmallock, on Sunday next, 25th inst. Through inadvertence the date was given in error in an announcement in our last week-end issue as October 18th. It is to be emphasised, therefore, that the dance is being held on next Sunday night, 25th of October. Dancing will

may warn of excess uric acid and harmful wastes in the blood

DON'T LET backache, uric acid disorders and rheumatic pains wear you out. These too frequent signs of sluggish kidney action usually soon disappear when Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are taken at the start of trouble. This special kidney medicine stimulates sluggish kidneys so that they filter away excess uric acid and other impurities, which may have been able to stay in the blood and irritate the system.

Actual experiences of anxious men and women prove the value of Doan's Pills in overcoming Backache, Rheumatic Troubles, Lumbago, Painful Muscles, Joints, Urinary and Bladder Irregularities, Gravel and Disturbed Sleep.
