

He admitted selling tea ounce to Dunworth. Tea ration started in 1941 e customers than he had could get tea for. He to what he did owing stomers coming in and not believe that he was he was in court because o do his best for his Dunworth was looking s much as anybody else, ked because he could not and said he would make him. The tea he sold stock at the beginning emergency and he had to at an enhanced price. ade several applications artment of Supplies and were prepared to if they got permission, go to the expense of to Dublin over, the it was not until the taken that he got his ts.

"BLACK MARKET."
ower—He had been buy- black market.
er—And that is one of that make it so difficult nister and is one of the bles in the Supplies De-—Yes.

ader who was known to g in the black market receive any favourable on from the Minister for -No.

hell suggested that there ating circumstances. His written several letters to tment of Supplies and o reply and meanwhile ers were coming into the ng him every day. The s would give the tea but get permission from the t of Supplies.

er said that apart from s, if they existed in the he defence, he protested h references as had been he Department of Sup- people think at all of the difficulties; the Depart- to meet in trying to put his racket?
ice said that the defendtant cases, and it was felt they should be disposed of as soon as possible.

Mr. J. Kenny B.L. (Mr. E. Monahan) applied for a much longer adjournment, as masses of documents produced in the first two of the 22 charges would have to be gone through.

District Justice Gleeson said he would be physically unable to deal with the 20 charges next Friday, but would do so on Friday, 6th Nov.

DEATH OF MR. P. SADLIER

It is with deep regret we record the death of Mr. Patrick Sadlier, Imperial Hotel, Catherine Street, Limerick, which sad event occurred suddenly on Saturday evening last. The late Mr. Sadlier, who was very well known and highly respected in the city and county, always took a prominent part in the work of the G.A.A. and rendered sterling services to that Association over a long period of years. His passing with such tragic suddenness has occasioned very sincere regret over a wide area and much sympathy is extended to the bereaved widow, family and relatives.

Last evening the remains were removed to St. Michael's Church, where, to-day, Solemn Requiem Mass was offered up for the repose of his soul, after which the funeral took place to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. Both at the removal of the remains last night and at the funeral to-day there was a very large attendance of the general public. We join with their many sympathisers in tendering the bereaved widow and family our sincere sympathy on their great loss.

ant had got a substantial excess profit in addition to what he got out of the black market tea, and to which he could only make a guess. Putting all things together, the least he could fine the defendant was £25, with costs of Court.

ing-Director of Carnock and Co. succession to the late Mr. Philip Toppin. Prior to his well deserved promotion Mr. Gleeson was buye for the millinery department and throughout his long connection with the firm he laboured for its advancement, displaying prudence tact and ability.

The late Mr. Gleeson was also a member of the Limerick Chamber of Commerce and though he seldom appeared in the limelight he played a prominent part in the counsel of this important body.

In private life the deceased was a most estimable citizen. He took a deep and practical interest in the welfare of the city and as a benefactor to charities and other deserving activities he had few equals. His death is deeply regretted and heartfelt sympathy is extended to the widow and relatives in their bereavement.

The funeral to-day from St. Michael's Church, after Requiem High Mass, to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery was of huge proportions.

DEATH OF MRS. E. CHRISTIE

We regret to record the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Christie, a member of an old Limerick family, which took place at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Nevin, Borrisokane last week. The deceased lady was the widow of the late Mr. John Christie, who was Secretary of the Limerick Branch of the Typographical Society for many years and sister of our highly esteemed and respected fellow-citizen, Mr. Edward Upton, furniture dealer Limerick. To the bereaved family and relatives and friends we extend our sincere sympathy.

CHINA AND THE VATICAN.

The Vatican Radio (says Reuter message from Rome) announces that the Holy See has agreed to a request from the Chinese Government for the establishment of diplomatic relations. The Chinese Charge d'Affaires in Berne is to be China's first Minister at the Vatican.