

OF MR. P. SADLIER

With deep regret we record the death of Mr. Patrick Sadlier, of the Hotel, Catherine Street, Limerick, which sad event occurred only on Saturday evening of the late Mr. Sadlier, who was a well known and highly respected man in the city and county, and took a prominent part in the work of the G.A.A. and rendered sterling services to that organization over a long period of his life. His passing with such suddenness has occasioned sincere regret over a wide area and much sympathy is extended to the bereaved widow and relatives.

On the evening the remains were removed to St. Michael's Church, where, to-day, Solemn High Mass was offered up for the repose of his soul, after which the funeral took place to St. Lawrence Cemetery. At the removal of the remains last night and at the funeral there was a very large attendance of the general public, and with their many sympathies tendering the bereaved family our sincere sympathy on their great loss.

He got a substantial excess in addition to what he got out of the black market tea, and to which he could only make a guess. If all things together, he could fine the defendant with costs of Court.

a prominent part in the counsels of this important body.

In private life the deceased was a most estimable citizen. He took a deep and practical interest in the welfare of the city and as a benefactor to charities and other deserving activities he had few equals. His death is deeply regretted and heartfelt sympathy is extended to the widow and relatives in their bereavement.

The funeral to-day from St. Michael's Church, after Requiem High Mass, to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery was of huge proportions.

DEATH OF MRS. E. CHRISTIE

We regret to record the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Christie, a member of an old Limerick family, which took place at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Nevin, Borrisokane, last week. The deceased lady was the widow of the late Mr. John Christie, who was Secretary of the Limerick Branch of the Typographical Society for many years, and sister of our highly esteemed and respected fellow-citizen, Mr. Edward Upton, furniture dealer, Limerick. To the bereaved family, relatives and friends we extend our sincere sympathy.
