WEEKLY CATTLE AND SHEEP MARKET.

Wednesday, November 18th—Cattle—Heavy entry again forwarded, all accommodation filled. Strong and representative attendance of export and home buyers. Beef, good supply; had plenty of customers at full current values, and wanted, especially nice medium heifers and cross A/A bullocks; rates in this department favourable to vendors.
Small entry of cows; useful fresh young cows cashed, half finished lots not in favour. Nice forward cattle and feeders changed hand, and wanted, for the right stamp prices up to previous level. The plain run and thin stores tedious. A heavy supply of young stores, including many choice drafts of dairy heifers and bullocks; a steady tone reflected in operations, but hardly as ready or quick as previous markets. Generally last week's terms had to be paid, especially for nice 1½ year old heifers, roans preferential demand; rough and backward cattle hard to negotiate. Calves with colour and quality sold well. In the general run of business—a quieter tone ruled, unless for choice lots. Over the day a substantial turnover and exceptionally good clearance. Fat heifers and bullocks, best, £21 to £27; second run, £17 15s. to £20; fat cows, best, £21 10s. to £27 10s.; second run, £14 to £21; 2½ year old heifers and bullocks, £20 to £22 10s.; second run, £17 2s. 6d. to £19 10s.; 1½ year old heifers, £17 17s. 6d. to £21 10s.; second run, £14 5s. to £16; bullocks, best, £16 10s. to £21 5s.; second run, £11 to £16; calves, best, £10 10s. to £13 5s.; second run, £7 17s. to £9 5s.

Sheep—Lighter supply, on the whole class not up to last week, less good sheep. Trade hardly as active as last Wednesday, and prices accordingly were a bit easier; pens with purity and nicely done met ready exchange; best pens freely bid for; nice middle weight hoggets in demand. Fresh ewes with quality found buyers. Old ewes difficult to cash. In some case vendors of best sheep stood out for top rates of recent markets, which buyers were not forced to part, and consequently concession required to effect exchange. A good show of feeders, for which there was fair enquiry. Fat lambs scarce, the right stamp cashed. Useful store lambs in demand at easier terms. Average attendance and satisfactory clearance effected. Hoggets, best, 111/- to 120/-; second run, 98/- to 106/-; stores, 80/- to 94/-; ewes, 85/- to 107/6; lambs, best, 66/- to 77/-; stores, 50/- to 65/-—Wm. B. Fitt and Co., Auctioneers.

DEATH.

HASSETT—November, 1942, Ethel M.
Hassett, wife of James Baldwin Hassett, "Carleia," Limerick. Interment St. Mary's Cathedral, 3 p.m., Saturday.

IN MEMORIAM.

DYNAN (Seventh Anniversary)—In sad and loving memory of William Dynan, who died on November 28th, 1935. On his soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy.

In a near and silent graveyard,
Where the trees their branches wave, Sleeps a kind and loving father In his cold and silent grave.
Though times have changed in many ways, There is one thing changes never,
The memory of those happy days When we were all together.

Inserted by his loving wife.

McNERNEY (Second Anniversary)—In sad and loving memory of Mrs. Sarah McNERNEY, Kilmaerue, Sixmilebridge, who died on 23rd of November, 1940. On whose soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Masses offered.

MURPHY (First Anniversary)—In sad and fond remembrance of our darling son, John Joseph Murphy (John Joe), who was drowned at Donnellan's Bank, Thomondgate, on Nov.
10th, 1941.

He was a dear little rosebud,
A beautiful child from birth;
But God took him back to Heaven, Before he was spoilt on earth.

Never forgotten by dad and mam, sister and brothers.

RYAN (First Anniversary)—In sad remembrance of John Ryan, Shanbally, Castletroy, who died 25th November, 1941. On his soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. R.I.P. Masses offered.

To-day is a day of remembrance,
A day of sad regrets;
A day we will always think of
When the rest of the world forgets.

Inserted by his wife and daughters.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

FREEMAN—The widow and daughter of the late John Freeman, 10 Church Street, wish to return their sincere thanks to all those who sent Mass cards and messages of sympathy in their recent bereavement. They wish to thank especially the officers and men
