

ber, were still in progress. The approximate number of work involved in these 114 districts—including those thrown out work at the establishments where they occurred—was 58,500, the aggregate duration was 337,000 working days,

£5,000 GRANT

The Department of Local Government has notified the Limerick Corporation that a grant of £5,000 has been ear-marked for the city road works to be carried out under the relief scheme. The grant was given on condition that the Corporation would make a contribution of £1,000, making the total sum £6,000. This condition has been complied with and work on the scheme was begun this (Wednesday) morning.

LIMERICK LADY'S DEATH IN ENGLAND

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Bridget (Biddy) Cronin at the Royal Hospital, Worcester, after a brief illness. Mrs. Cronin was the wife of Comdt. E. J. Cronin, and the second daughter of the late John McMahon, timber merchant, Mrs. E. McMahon, Doonea, Ansell Avenue, Limerick. Interment will take place at Worcester on Friday morning.

more, Co. Limerick, were mentioned in a lecture in Dublin by Prof. S. P. O'Riordan. The amount of work that remained to be done was far greater than had been accomplished, he said.

ASSISTANTS DISSATISFIED

Grocers assistants in Dublin, dissatisfied with proposals in the new Liquor Bill, have decided to stand for the hours 2 to 6 on Sundays and 10 p.m. closing hour on other days. 1,300 assistants at a meeting voiced a protest which will be sent to the Minister for Justice.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS

There were only five cases of infantile paralysis during the past week, it is announced by the L.G.D. This is a considerable reduction as compared with previous weeks. There were no deaths reported. No further weekly notifications will be issued.

DEATH.

Cronin (nee McMahon)—On Dec. 1st, at Worcester Royal Hospital, Bridget (Biddy) wife of E. J. Cronin. Deeply regretted by her family and relatives. Interment will take place at Worcester on Friday morning.