It is with feelings of very great regret we announce the death of Mrs. Sarah Boland, wife of the late Mr. John Boland, Rossaguile, Newport, which sad event took place at her residence on the morning of December 2nd after a brief illness to the inexpressible grief of her sorrowing family, sisters and brothers, and of the many relatives, friends and neighbours who knew her and respected her so much.
She passed peacefully away fortified by the rites of the Holy Church of which during her life she was a most ardent and devout member.

WOULD SEE HIM
FOR IT!

"I watched through a pair of field-glasses and saw the children playing around the road, but when I approached them one developed a very bad leg and the others said they were sick," said Sergeant J.
Long when giving evidence at Ennis against Mrs. Mary Clohessy, Kyletunna, for failing to send her children regularly to school. The sergeant produced a letter he received from the defendant, which commenced—"Well, my dear best friend." It explained why the children were not at school and concluded by requesting him to intercede for her and not press the case.
If he did this the defendant would "see him for it" by the Christmas holidays.

Justice Gleeson said there was a suggestion in the letter of a Christmas box for the sergeant. He told the defendant that if she did not send her children to school in future he would send them to an industrial school.

Rossaguile, Newport, wish to thank sincerely all who sent Mass cards and messages of sympathy in their recent sad bereavement. They wish also to thank al. who called to condole and who attended the High Mass and the funeral. They trust this notice will be accepted by all in very grateful acknowledgment.

MR. T. CONNOLLY, DROMARD.

The death of Mr. Thomas Connolly, which occurred at his residence, Dromard, Rathkeale, on Tuesday, 15th inst., is deeply regretted by a large circle of relatives and friends. An extensive and practical farmer, deceased was a kindly and obliging neighbour and had many fine traits of character that gained the respect and esteem of all who knew him, especially in the district where he lived. He was a life long nationalist with an unselfish outlook, and in the darkest days of the Black-and-Tan struggle his home was always open to the men of the I.R.A., and members of his family suffered imprisonment on account of their connection with the movement.

An exceptionally large and representative funeral that included many members of the old I.R.A. followed the remains when removed
