MRS. SARAH BOLAND, ROSSAGUILE, NEWPORT.

It is with feelings of very great regret we announce the death of Mrs. Sarah Boland, wife of the late John Boland, Rossaguile, Newport, which sad event took place at her residence on the morning of December 2nd after a brief illness. The inexpressible grief of her sorrowing family, sisters and brothers, and of the many relatives, friends and neighbours who knew and respected her so much, she passed peacefully away fortified by the rites of the Holy Church which during her life she was a most ardent and devout member. She bore her illness with true Christian patience and resignation to God's holy and divine will.

The late Mrs. Boland, who was a member of an old and very highly respected family, was of a very gentle, cheerful and good-natured disposition and was held in very high esteem by all whom she came in contact with. Her death is deeply regretted by all. To her sorrowing family, brothers, sisters, relatives and a large circle of friends sincere sympathy is extended in their very sad bereavement.

On Thursday evening her remains were removed to the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, Newport, and were followed by a very large gathering of mourners and friends. The remains were received at the church by Rev. J. K. Dunne, C.C., and Rev. R. Kennedy, who recited the Rosary.

On Friday morning Solemn Requiem High Mass was offered up for the happy repose of her soul, the officiating clergy being—Very Rev. W. J. Canon Condon, P.P., Newport; Rev. J. K. Dunne, C.C.; Rev. M. O'Dwyer, C.C., do.; and Rev. R. Kennedy.

The funeral took place subsequently to the family burial ground at Kilnarath. The large cortege which accompanied the remains and the number of sympathisers who attended at the interment clearly demonstrated the high esteem in which deceased and her family are held in the locality. The above-named clergy officiated at the graveside. May her soul rest in peace.

The chief mourners were:—John, George, Martin, Michael, James, William, Thomas and Patrick (sons), Mrs. H. Ryan and Winifred (daughters), Mrs. Bridget Hassett, Nora Rohan, Mrs. M. R. Melan (sisters), John Canlis (bro-

and messages of sympathy in their recent sad bereavement. They wish also to thank all who called to condole and who attended the High Mass and the funeral. They trust this notice will be accepted by all in very grateful acknowledgment.

MR. T. CONNOLLY, DROMARD.

The death of Mr. Thomas Connolly, which occurred at his residence, Dromard, Rathkeale, on Tuesday, 15th inst., is deeply regretted by a large circle of relatives and friends. An extensive and practical farmer, deceased was a kindly and obliging neighbour and had many fine traits of character that gained the respect and esteem of all who knew him, especially in the district where he lived. He was a life long nationalist with an unselfish outlook, and in the darkest days of the Black-and-Tan struggle his home was always open to the men of the I.R.A., and members of his family suffered imprisonment on account of their connection with the movement.

An exceptionally large and representative funeral that included many members of the old I.R.A. followed the remains when removed to St. Mary's Church, Rathkeale, on Wednesday evening and again when the interment took place in the New Cemetery, Rathkeale, on Thursday. The officiating clergy were—Very Rev. C. Canon Mangan, Very Rev. T. Canon Wall, Rev. P. C. Lynch, P.P.; Rev. Father O'Callaghan, C.C.; Rev. Father Culhane, C.C., and Rev. Father O'Keefe, C.C.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs. M. Connolly (widow), Miss M. E. Connolly and Mrs. J. O'Donnell (daughters); John Connolly (son), J. O'Donnell (son-in-law), Tom Hayes, Joe Hayes and David Hayes (brothers-in-law); Coleman O'Donnell (grand child), Mrs. J. O'Sullivan (niece), Willie Hayes (nephew), Martin O'Grady, Michael O'Grady, Martin T. O'Grady, J. O'Grady, Peter Paul O'Grady, Mrs. M. Guirey, Mrs. M. McEnirey, Mrs. T. McEnirey, David and P. J. Lynch, F. Downes, Miss B. Shanahan, J. Shanahan, M. Shanahan, Mrs. Sheahan, Mossie, Michael and Julia O'Connor, Miss E. Hayes, Mrs. Blackwell, Mrs. Sheehy, Mrs. M. Kelly, Miss K. Shanahan, Dr. and Mrs. Lane, W. Gallagher, J. Gallagher, P. Neville, Mrs. Byrnes, Miss F. Byrnes and M. Kelly (relatives).

Among the general public were—Michael Cussen, solicitor; J. Binchy, M. O'Donnell, Co.C.; D. Donovan, M.F.S.I.; J. Wall, M.P.S.I.; M. Guirey, T. McKnight, Jack Neville, J. O'Connell, Misses N. and K.
