

Limerick Priest's Death in Nigeria.

---

The death has taken place at the Government Hospital, Sokoto, Nigeria, Benue West Africa, of Rev. Philip Judge, C.S.C., born in Limerick, 30 years ago. He completed his secondary studies in Blackrock College, and his Philosophy and Theology in the Holy Cross Seminary, Blackrock, Dublin. In June, 1933, he was ordained priest at All Saints, London, and immediately volunteered for the West Africa mission. He was assigned to Rev. Henry's Vicariate at Sokoto, Nigeria.

---