

Death of Mr E. Leahy, Sol.

The death occurred at St John's Hospital, Limerick, after an illness of some weeks duration, of Mr E Leahy, solr, Lickaboon, Limerick. Deceased, like his father before him, was a prominent legal practitioner in the city, and, in addition, he farmed in an extensive way. He was a keen sportsman, in his younger days sporting the colours of Limerick Hunt Club in many a hard won race. He bred and raced, both on the track and in the open, some first class greyhounds. He was a keen lover of the 'sham, and for many years "Ned" Leahy, as he was very popularly known, acted as Secretary to the Limerick County Hunt Club for a number of years. A man of splendid physique, and a big hearted man in every way, his death in the prime of life has evoked feelings of genuine regret.
