

Death of Mr A O'G. Lawlor

The death occurred at his residence, O'Nicholas, Limerick, on Saturday morning of Mr Arthur O'Grady Lawlor, a well known and greatly respected citizen. He was a director of the firm of Lloyd and Co, and was for several years a member of the Chamber of Commerce. Throughout his life he was prominently connected with the industrial life in Limerick and was a former High Sheriff.
