

New York Police Inspector

Limerick Man's Death;

The death took place recently at New York of Patrick McCarthy, Deputy Chief Inspector, New York Police Department, and a native of Kilmara, Co. Limerick. He was responsible for the new way traffic system to remove congestion; he was appointed to the police in 1883 by the late Theodore Roosevelt, then Police Commissioner. On his retirement he was head of all traffic regulations in the city; he was responsible for installing stop lights at dead ends of streets.

The chief mourners at the funeral were—Mrs E D McCarthy, widow; John and William, sons; Mrs Helen Murphy, Mrs M Young, Miss S McCarthy, daughters