

---

City Sudden Death

---

After commencing work at Limerick Clothing Factory on Saturday, a man named John Conway, 43, St. Joseph's street, had a seizure and died suddenly. He was removed to his home by the city ambulance after spiritual and medical assistance had been rendered.

---