

Died In Australia

County Limerick Solicitor

Mr John Sheehy, solicitor, who died at Haberfield, Australia, aged 80, was a native of Ballingarry, Co Limerick. He practised as a solicitor in Dublin before emigrating to Sydney 51 years ago. He took a leading part in Catholic and Irish affairs and was General Secretary of the Irish National Foresters and President of the Irish National Association for many years. He was responsible for the establishment of the Bull Determination for Ireland League of Australia in Sydney. He married Margt, Clifton, daughter of James and Mary Clifton, of Limerick and Sydney.
