

Limerick Priests Bereaved

Family's Double Loss

The death of Mr J Casey, which occurred at his residence, Kilmuirig, Ballyorgan, Co Limerick, was followed eighteen hours later by the death of his father, Mr Jeremiah Casey.

The death of Mr J Casey, senior, about 71 years, was not altogether unexpected as he was ill for some months previous to his demise. He was a native of Meadstown, Kilderrery, was a highly respected and progressive member of the farming community. He was a well known Gael and in his younger days was cul baire of the old Kilderrery football team. He was the father of Rev P Casey, r r, Hollywood; of Rev M Casey, Los Angeles; of Mr T Casey, Gardis Sheehana, Tipperary.
