

Child's Sad Death

Fatally Injured By Motor Lorry

A child named Patrick Donagan, aged 3 years, son of a working man, was fatally injured in a motor lorry accident at Newcastle West on Saturday. An inquest held by Coroner O'Sullivan, 10/11, was adjourned on the application of Inspector Gault, Garda Síochána. The coroner jury and Garda authorities expressed sympathy with the bereaved family.