

Nun's Death in Limerick

The death took place at St John's Hospital, Limerick, on Monday of Sister M Gerard Dugan, of the Little Company of Mary, a native of Dublin. She had been 40 years in religious life, and had been in some houses of the Order in England.
