

Prominent Citizen's Death

By the death of Mr A. C. Nestor, which took place in Cork on Wed. Sunday about a week ago, Limerick has lost a very prominent and popular citizen. Deceased was a member of the firm of Nestor Bros, and was one of our most successful merchants. Of course a son, and was widely known as a very successful man, and as a general sportsman, whether fishing or shooting, the object of his sports was. Deep sympathy is extended to his widow and family in their bereavement.

The remains were removed from Cork to Limerick on Monday, and the interment took place on Tuesday at the Catholic Mass at St Michael's Church to Mr. S. Lawrence cemetery. It was of immense popularity, resulting in a very marked degree the popularity of the deceased.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs Nestor (widow); Lizzie, Oona, Gertrude (daughters); Charles, Bernie, Derrick, Tom, Niall and Louis (sons); Harry Nestor (brother); Lizzie Nestor, May Geraghty and Aggie Beaherick (sisters); James, Ellen, Francis and Mrs. Frederick (aunts); Arthur and York Beaherick and Dr. C. C. Geraghty (ephew); Mrs Lizzie, Oona; Mrs Tomy, Mrs Corry (nieces-in-law); P. M. O'Connell (father-in-law); J. Larkin, Cork (brother-in-law); Charles Lane, Mrs O'Connell, Michael, Cyril and Reggie O'Connell, etc (relatives).