Clare Nun's Death in Kanturk

The death has taken place at Kanturk of Sister M. Stanislaus Brennan, of the Convent of Mercy. Born at Clonmoney, Co. Clare, in 1805, Sister Stanislaus spent 50 of her religious life of 68 years in Kanturk, and all classes of parents and children at all times revered her. Requiem Office and High Mass on Saturday was largely attended.

The chief mourner was Mr Paul Flynn, National Bank, Kilkenny. Many friends from Clare, Limerick, Waterford and Dublin, who were unable to travel, telegraphed their inability to attend. Telegrams and many other messages of sympathy were received from all over Ireland.
