

West Limerick Gael's Death

The death of Mr Jerry Healy, of Knocknanna, Abbeyfeale, removes another outstanding Gael from one of the famous teams organized by "Father Casey" and some of whom were operating in the west of the county and even prior to the days of the G.A.A. "Jerry" kept the "gap" before the "game" was fashionable, and often made it very difficult for the late Albin Quinlan's former line of the Commissioners of Limerick to qualify in some of their county teams.
