

Limerick Creamery Director's Death

Mr Michael Walsh, Newlawn House, Ballyagran, whose death took place recently, was for many years a very popular and efficient member of the committee of Ballyagran Dairy Society Ltd. in the development of which he was handsomely interested. He was an enterprising and successful farmer and took a deep interest in modern farming and dairying methods.