

Limerick Christian Brother Dead

The death took place at St Joseph's Deaf and Dumb Institute, Cobna, of Rev Brother B B McEriney. A native of Limerick, he was educated in the Christian Brothers' Schools here. As a Brother he laboured in Waterford, Cork, Dundalk, Belfast, Derry and in England. Some years ago his health began to fail and he was sent to Cobna to rest. He was a man of outstanding ability, with great energy both physical and intellectual. He was aged 73. He was a great friend of the late Mr Joe Devlin, M.P.
