

Co. Councillor Bereaved

Death of Mr. P. O'Shaughnessy, Loughill.

The death has occurred of Mr Patrick O'Shaughnessy, Loughill, an extensive landowner, and a member of a widely-known Limerick family. He was father of Mr P. O'Shaughnessy, a Fine Gael member of the Limerick Co. Council, and a prominent county councillor, and of Mr Michael O'Shaughnessy, B.A. who is in charge of the work in the West Limerick dogs and the county museum. Deceased was a brother of the famous engineer, the late Mr Michael O'Shaughnessy, who directed the construction of many public works in America, including the huge O'Shaughnessy dam near San Francisco. He was also the owner of Fairy Lane, where Gerald Griffin, the famous poet and novelist spent his youth.
