

Death of Mr. P. Sadlier.

The death of Mr Patrick Sadlier, the Proprietor of the Imperial Hotel, Catherine street, which occurred rather suddenly at his residence on Saturday evening last, came as a profound shock to his very many friends throughout the city and county. He was truly a very kindly, gentle and charitably disposed personality. He was a keen supporter of our Gaelic games, and could claim the friendship of everyone of prominence connected with the Association for many years back, his hotel being the rendezvous for the Gaels of Munster. In the prime of life, the passing of Mr Sadlier has evoked keen sorrow, and sincere regret is tendered to his widow, daughters and relatives in their very sad bereavement.

The funeral to Mount St Lawrence Cemetery on Monday evening was a very marked token of sympathy and respect, being extremely large and most representative in character.
