

Biddy Earlie Recalled

The death has just taken place of Ma y Casey, aged 84 years, of Beldra, Milsonmalbeg, who was a grand daughter of the celebrated ex. Clare "wise woman," Biddy Earlie. She lived alone in a small house and had twelve cats. Her chief hobby was feeding wild birds and they became so familiar with her that they flew in and out of her house as they pleased, and strange to say, were not interfered with by the cats. Robins had a special fascination for her. When she whistled for them and called them by their name they flocked about her, perching on her head and arms. She had been married three times.
