Limerick Nun's Death

The death occurred on 4th inst. at St. Monica's Convent, F C J., (Skipton, Yorkshire, of Mother M. Borgia McMahon. Mother Borgia was born in St. Mary's Parish, and after her early education at Laurel Hill, she entered the Order. She spent her earlier years as a Religious in Australia, being for a considerable number of years attached to the teaching staff of the Order's convent in Melbourne. About twenty years ago Mother Borgia returned to England, where she remained until her death. On the 1st August last she was the recipient of many messages of congratulation on the occasion of her Golden Jubilee, from past and present pupils of St. Monica's Convent. Mother Borgia was a lady of great culture and charming disposition, which helped her to win her way to the hearts of all she came in contact with. She had another sister in the same Order who died some years ago in the convent at Newtownbarry, Wexford. To her sister, Mrs Agnes Quinn, Cork; her nephew, Mr J McInerney, 76 Henry Street, and her grand-nephews Jim and Jack McInerney, we offer our sincere sympathy.
