THE FAVOURITE "45"

Card playing for various prizes is in full swing in Kilmallock district (writes our Kilmallock correspondent). The "tariff," as it is called, is usually 1/- to 2/-, and in some instances as many as 300 subscribers have taken part. Those who have not been lucky enough to reach the final still take a keen interest, and when it comes down to the play-off between the last two there is a deep silence, which is broken some minutes later by the hearty congratulations which are showered upon the winner. Then there is time, maybe, for a "blast" from the melodeon, or a choice selection from the local fiddler. Among the prizes, so far, we find a fitch of bacon, a discarded bicycle frame, and a pair of gent's shoes (size 6), which, being too small for the winner each time, were up again and again until the "tariff" fell to 6d. and a winner who could wear them with comfort was found.

NATIONAL RECITATIONS

Under the above title a fine collection of patriotic and humorous recitations has just been published at the amazingly low price of threepence (postage one penny). There are 32 well-filled pages and no fewer than 22 pieces, including "The Man From God-Knows-Where," "Pearse's Oration at Rossa's Grave," "Paid O'Donoghue," "The Death of Emmet," and all the other favourites. This is a companion volume to the Six Great Song Books, now re-issued in a new edition at 3d. each. If unobtainable locally the seven books will be sent by post for 2/- by the Irish Book Bureau, 68 O'Connell Street, Dublin.

KILMALLOCK TENNIS DANCE

Always a very successful function (writes our Kilmallock correspondent) the local tennis dance this year was at least as well patronised as ever before. Altogether 205 couples were admitted and a most enjoyable time was spent until the wee sma' hours.

restored the certificates, there being no objection by Mr. M. J. Walshe, State Solicitor, who prosecuted.

A NOBLE CAUSE

The annual Charity Sermon on behalf of the Good Shepherd Convent will be preached in St. John's Cathedral on Sunday next by Rev. G. Reynolds, C.S.S.R., at the 12 o'clock Mass. By kind permission of his Lordship the Bishop, a collection for this great charity will be made at each Mass in all the churches of the city. It is scarcely necessary to stress the fact that the work being done by the Good Shepherd nuns—the rescue of young girls who have gone astray—is beyond all praise. Funds are urgently needed. The burden on the good Sisters grows heavier with the growing difficulties of the times, but with confidence in God, and relying on the well-known charity of our citizens, they struggle on.

POPULAR CITIZEN DEAD

A deservedly popular and esteemed citizen passed away yesterday in the person of Mr. Richard (Dick) Quin, senior, "Windermere," South Curcular Road. Up to his retirement some years ago from active business life, the deceased was principal of Messrs. Richard Quin and Sons, garage proprietors, and throughout his life took a deep interest in the affairs of the city. He was a leading member of Limerick Citizens' and Ratepayers' Society for many years and always had the good of the city, and of the country in general, very sincerely at heart. Deep sympathy is felt for his family and relatives in their bereavement.

MADE FALSE RETURNS

Associated Periodicals, Fleet St., London, publishers of "The Leader," and their manager, Frederick Charles James, have been fined £120 in London for making false returns to the British Ministry of Supply of the amount of newsprint in their possession. The court was told that about 100 tons of paper was not disclosed.
