

Mrs. O'Connell also gave evidence. Dr. Ed. Harnett said that on 2nd January he attended complainant. His right eye was closed up, and was blood shot. A small bone was broken in the nose. There were some abrasions on the ear and a cut on the eyebrow.

Mr. Noonan—Might those be caused by falling against the door or on a form?—Not unless the object hit fitted into the eye.

Mr. MacAulay said there had been some litigation between the parties some time ago, and the father of defendants was decreed for some damaged trees, and engineer's expenses.

Patrick Woulfe said that when he came to the door on New Year's night and paid to get into the hall, O'Connell told him as he passed in to stop his blackguarding and go and sit by the wall for the rest of the night. He asked him what objection he had to him, as he moved towards the door just as his brothers were coming in. The brothers were only separating them when O'Connell fell on the form outside the door.

Richard and Philip having given evidence,

The Justice imposed fines of 10/- on each defendant, and £2 for medical expenses apportioned between them.

COURSING CASE.

Timothy Murphy, Kilconlea, was summoned under the Game Preservation Act, 1930, for coursing, on the lands of Daniel O'Donnell, Abbeyfeale Hill, on 20th December.

Mr. M. J. Woulfe, solr., appeared for complainant, William O'Connor, the treasurer of Abbeyfeale Coursing Club, and Mr. R. A. MacAulay, solr., for defendant.

T. McAuliffe said he witnessed the signature of D. O'Donnell to the Club deed.

William O'Connor deposed that he saw defendant and two others on the lands preserved; two were beating the field with dogs and one stood in a gap. As he watched, one of the men, the defendant, came towards where he was. He had a greyhound and a small dog like a terrier. He asked him to tie up his dogs. Defendant said he never saw the man he would tie up his dog for, nor the man who would stop him.

Mr. MacAulay—Is the Abbeyfeale Coursing Club in existence at all?—Certainly; their meeting would be on the 10th of February.

Is it still affiliated to the I.C.C.—has it not been revoked?—No.

Mr. MacAulay—Section 19 of the Act has reference exclusively to recognised associations, and if Abbeyfeale Club is a registered Association the proceedings should have been brought under it.

Mr. Woulfe handed in a letter from Mr. T. A. Morris, in whose name the summons was issued, consenting to the proceedings. The case, said Mr. Woulfe, was covered by the entire act of 1930. The Irish Coursing Club had the right to prosecute.

The Justice held with Mr. Woulfe, and declared his willingness to state a case if necessary.

Defendant was fined 10/-.

BOTH BOUND TO PEACE.

John O'Connor, Caherlane, was charged at the suit of the State (Supt. McKenna prosecuting) with assaulting Patrick O'Connor, Caherlane, on 11th of October last. Mr. MacAulay, solicitor, defended.

Replying to Supt. McKenna, complainant said he was returning from Abbeyfeale on that Sunday and near Feale View School defendant was driving his pony with his wife and two children in the car going to Mass. He was on his own side of the road, and as defendant was about to pass him he drew towards his side and struck him down on the head with a crop. He was taken off the road by Mrs. Roche and some others. He was attended by Dr. Wm. O'Connor three times, and after was three weeks in and Stephen (nephews), J. Morrissey, Mrs. W. Banks, Mrs. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Roche, Jim and Michael Roche (cousins).

DEEPLY REGRETTED

It is said that the good, die young. The application of this saying could not possibly have a more fitting illustration than that furnished by the unexpected death of poor Timothy Dalton, of Dromagurrane, Clounlehard, in the full prime of early manhood (writes our Athea correspondent). The deceased, who was of a most exemplary character, was a young man of great promise, and his early demise is sincerely regretted by all throughout the area, where he was esteemed and loved by everybody. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dalton, of Dromagurrane, Clounlehard, Ballyhahill, and was one of a family of seven, three of whom occupy Government positions. Another brother of the deceased, Michael, holds an important and responsible post in the Knockmeal Co-Operative Dairy Society, County Waterford. Two uncles reside in the Athea district—Mr. James Dalton of Coole East, and Mr. Thomas Dalton, of Coole West. It may be of interest to recall that a third uncle, poor Paddy Dalton of Coole East, was brutally murdered by Crown Forces during the Black and Tan era. Gentle and unassuming in his disposition, the late Timothy Dalton was a most lovable character, whose innate goodness of heart and mind endeared him to all who knew him. Indeed, so popular was this very fine type of Irish young manhood with all classes, that it can be safely assumed that long will his memory be cherished by those he has left behind. This popularity was evidenced in no uncertain manner by the numerous messages of condolence and sympathy that kept pouring in to the bereaved family, and by the huge and representative funeral cortege that accompanied the remains of the dead youth to their final resting place.

The sad event took place on the 3rd inst., when deceased was taken suddenly ill and expired a short time afterwards in his mother's arms. A particularly pathetic feature in connection with his demise was that it occurred on the morning of his birthday. Throughout his short span of life this graceful young man led a blameless existence. He was a monthly Communicant and as a matter of fact, received Holy Communion a day or two before his death. It will be understood that even in the midst of their grief this circumstance must impart much consolation to his sorrowing relatives. This sad occurrence, so tragic in its total unexpectedness, has caused a profound shock to the people of the neighbourhood, but it is on the bereaved parents, brothers and sisters that the blow has fallen heaviest. To these, and to all the other relatives and friends of the deceased, the deep and respectful sympathy of the public is extended in their great sorrow.

FOR Mass Cards, In Memoriam Cards and Acknowledgment Cards, apply to the Limerick Leader. Large range of latest designs.

said, it was about time to stop. Both parties would be bound to the peace in £20 and sureties of £20 each.

Mr. M. K. Dore, solr., and Mr. M. O'Sullivan, solr., applied for and were granted dance hall special licences, and a large number of minor cases were heard in which local Gardai from outside stations were engaged.

LETTER FROM ABBEYFEALE RESIDENT.

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.")
Sir—In connection with feature is "Outlaws of the a new "Hopalong" story locale in Arabia. Thrills and the cast includes William Andy Clyde, Jean Phillips a Deste. On Thursday con eagerly awaited "Waltzes Vienna," a film which is a ing romance set to liting Prominently featured are of the exquisite melodies of so music lovers are in for treat. The big cast includes Matthews, Edmund Gwen Compton, Esmond Knight Frank Vosper.

THE LYRIC—Limerick au agree that Rise Stevens is the greatest singers h Limerick in recent years glorious voice is heard in operatic and popular nu while in others she is join Nelson Eddy. The two star an imposing cast in "The Ch Soldier," which the Lyric m ment are retaining until Wed next. On Thursday next the of the Christian Brothers' S will present on the stage Lyric, Gilbert and Sullivan's Mikado." Details of this big in amateur musical circles in another portion of this is

THE THOMOND—On M next the Thomond presents "Guns," the first Laurel and film in over two years. In th ture the comedians are seen army, and provide more fun ever. The cast includes Sheila The supporting feature, "M for Three," features Jean He Fay Wray and Walter Woulf On Wednesday the progr changes to "Tanks a Millic hilarious army story, which t a rookie who joins Uncle Sam army. He memories every r the army code book and ast his superiors and often finds self in many amusing situa William Tracy gives a superb performance as the boy with photographic mind. "Reper Leisure" is the support. On F and Saturday "The Pittsburgh will be shown. The big cast inc Billy Conn, the man who nearl feated Joe Louis; Jean Pa Dick Purcell, Alan Baxter and Ann Borg.

L.S.F. PROMOTIONS

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader")

A Chara—In connection with list of L.S.F. promotions appear in last week's issue of your paper the District Staff wish it to be known that this was inserted without their authority, and that reference to Mr. John Quinn's signature owing to ill-health is completely unfounded.

Mr. Quinn is still an active member of the Local Security Force, and is enjoying excellent health.—Sinne le meas,

R. DOYLE, D.S.O. (1)

(District Leader)

M. H. HANLEY, D.S.O.

(District Adjutant)

Local Security Force,

Limerick City District

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader")

Dear Sir—You reported in last week-end issue of your paper that I resigned from the District Adjutancy of Limerick City L.S.F. on account of ill-health. This is true, as my resignation of appointment was for another reason, and I have no complaint on the score of my health, thank God. I am still a member of L.S.F.

I shall be pleased if you would kindly publish this correction, your last week's report has caused me a great deal of annoyance.

Faithfully yours,

JOHN QUINN

3 Ardara Terrace, Ennis Road

Limerick

January 21st, 1943

WEEK-END RUGBY