

throughout the entire presentation. Some songs by Mr. Michael McNamara, tenor, are being very well received nightly. A short topical sketch and a number of speciality items conclude this very tuneful gem of entertainment, which many consider to be the finest staged in the hall in recent years.

PENNY DINNER BOXES

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.")

Dear Mr. Editor—Will you please publish the following appeal:—

It has come to the knowledge of the Penny Dinners Committee that some of the boxes recently distributed to the various licensed houses, etc., have been stolen. In one instance the box was found broken open and thrown on the side-walk. Through the medium of your valuable paper may we appeal to those who have been so kind as to place boxes in their respective business premises to please warn the Committee if a box is stolen. We should feel most grateful to those who have not yet returned contents of boxes for January if they will kindly do so, as our dinners are increasing daily, and the more money we get the more dinners we can provide for the destitute poor of our city.

Signed on behalf of the Committee,

(Mrs.) M. G. QUINLAN, Hon. Treas., "Kylemore," Ennis Road, 18th February, 1943.

DEATH OF AMBULANCE DRIVER

Mr. Michael Tuohy, ambulance driver, Raheen Hospital, died suddenly on Thursday evening, 11th inst. (writes our Killaloe correspondent). It appears that he was driving from Scariff. He was in his usual good health. On reaching the hospital he visited a patient, became ill, and expired immediately afterwards. Deepest regret was manifested on his death, as there were few officials more obliging or more accommodating to the public. The deceased was a member of the Old I.R.A. and took a prominent part in the Anglo-Irish war. To his sorrowing wife and friends the greatest sympathy is extended.

SAVOY CONCERT

The public are indebted to the promoters of next Sunday's Savoy Concert for the further opportunity afforded us of hearing Miss Lilian Cahill. Her singing at the Brislane Choral Concert thrilled the packed house, and those who were present realised that a new Limerick star has arisen. In addition to Miss Cahill, Chris. Sheehan, baritone (from Cork Opera House); James and John, Val. Vousden and a host of other entertainers will be there to give of their best.

Accountants in Ireland not only resulted in his securing first place with honours but a gold medal and the Arthur H. Muir Memorial Prize (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). This is the first time in which the medal has been won by a 26 Counties candidate. Mr. Grace, who was educated at the Christian Brothers School, Thurles, and subsequently at Blackrock College, is son of Mr. J. J. Grace, who served as an officer and surveyor of customs and excise in Thurles, and also in Abbeyfeale and Tralee, and who is at present an inspector in the Investigation Branch, Dublin Castle.

DEATH OF CATTLE DEALER

The death of Mr. John Lane, cattle dealer, of Main St., Abbeyfeale, which occurred suddenly on Sunday while on a visit to Drogbeda, is much regretted by the public and a large number of relatives and friends (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). The deceased was much respected and very popular amongst those of his calling. A very large funeral procession accompanied the remains to the Abbeyfeale Parish Church. The interment next day was also attended by a very large attendance of the general public.

ASKEATON RED CROSS

At the annual meeting of the Askeaton (County Limerick) Red Cross Branch, home nursing certificates were presented to a large number of members who had been successful in the recent examination. Rev. D. Rea, C.C., Chairman, presented the certificates. Rev. Mr. F. A. H. White, Vice-Chairman, was also present. Congratulations were offered to the successful members, and their instructress, Mrs. J. Gleeson.

REHEARSING A PLAY

The students of the local Technical School (writes our Dromcollogher correspondent) are at present rehearsing Louis D'Alton's "The Money Doesn't Matter," which they intend to produce in the near future. The proceeds of the entertainment will go in aid of the local Parish Council and the production is being eagerly looked forward to.

DROMCOLLOGHER WHIST DRIVE

The usual weekly whist drive at Dromcollogher in aid of Red Cross Funds attracted a fair crowd. The winners were:—Ladies, 1st prize, Mrs. M. K. Sheehy; 2nd prize resulted in a tie between Mrs. C. M. Daly and Miss E. Daly. Gents, 1st prize, Mr. Prendergast; 2nd prize, Mr. J. J. Savage.

INFLUENZA AT ATHEA

Never, perhaps, since the dis-

was fine Inspector and cart O'Connell John D. Carroll, guilty to rugated of Michael Guard dence in property The Ju sentence defendan

ST. C.

The v aid of John's February entertain ard. An been arr be appre which us The Chr present gramme, include Mr. Joe Mr. Ger O'Rourke dancing item wi Singing

STO

Michael racca, M Court, c a bicycl and one perty o hearing tice Ken bad one of two hard lab

SUSI

William Charlevi local po finding, £1 0s. 5 McCarth District suspenso months effect if for thre

OB

At Cha District journed Garda C summon dan, Ba mond O' ville; E Station, fuel me obstructi