TO FARMERS advertisement with harp logo and text: 'On behalf of the Nation I want to thank you for your repeated and redoubled efforts this season. Your great achievement in spite of many difficulties is fully appreciated. I am confident that the area under wheat, oats and barley can be increased considerably during the next few weeks and the need for more and more potatoes must not be overlooked. The final effort to complete that extra tillage will make all the difference between want and plenty for man and beast in 1944. So nearcúig Déa leá san obair. Seamus O'Keane'.
